Recommendation		Description
		Implementation of the reforms is being progressed alongside implementation of other Set the Standard recommendations, including the development of the new human resources entity (rec 11), the Independent Parliamentary Standards Commission (rec 22) and the final adoption of the Behaviour Standards and Codes for parliamentarians, parliamentarians’ staff and Commonwealth parliamentary workplaces (rec 21).
20b-e	Expansion of the Parliamentary Workplace Support Service The Australian Government should expand, within three months, the scope of the new Parliamentary Workplace Support Service to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(b) include all allegations of bullying, sexual harassment and sexual assault</li> <li>(c) establish a clear pathway for anonymous reporting, including through a digital platform</li> <li>(d) publish additional information on what happens with anonymous and bystander disclosures</li> <li>(e) include historic complaints of bullying, sexual harassment and sexual assault and those relating to people who have left the workplace.</li> </ul>	The Parliamentary Workplace Support Service (PWSS) was expanded on 12 April 2022. The PWSS is now able to offer support and advice, including local resolution, to all Commonwealth Parliamentary Workplace participants in relation to serious incidents or misconduct, and other workplace conflict that relates to a work health and safety risk. The PWSS independent workplace review and resolution mechanism, available to current and former parliamentarians and MoP(S) Act employees, is now able to review all incidents of bullying, assault, sexual assault, harassment, sexual harassment, and unreasonable workplace conduct that amounts to a work health and safety risk. The PWSS is now able to review complaints concerning conduct that occurred prior to 18 May 2019. A digital platform has been established to receive anonymous complaints, and additional information is available about the handling of anonymous and bystander reports.
24	Ensure protections against age and disability discrimination The Australian Government, in line with recent amendments to the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Cth), should ensure that the Age Discrimination Act 2004 (Cth) and Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth) are amended to clarify that the laws apply to staff and consultants employed or engaged under the Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984 (Cth).	The Parliamentary Workplace Reform (Set the Standard Measures No. 1) Act commenced on 23 February 2022 (Bill passed Parliament on 15 February 2022). The Bill amended the Age Discrimination Act 2004 and Disability Discrimination Act to clarify that these laws apply to staff employed or engaged under the MoP(S) Act.
27	Review of Parliamentary sitting calendar and Order/Routine of Business The Procedure Committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate should review the Parliamentary sitting calendar and the Order/Routine of Business with a view to enhancing wellbeing, balance and flexibility for parliamentarians and workers in Commonwealth parliamentary workplaces.	The first sitting calendar for the 47th Parliament was informed by considerations about wellbeing, balance and flexibility, as indicated by the Leader of the House on 27 July 2022. Changes were made to the House order of business on 27 July 2022 to defer divisions and quorums from 6.30 to 7.30pm on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, enabling members who are not scheduled to speak or to otherwise be involved in proceedings, to leave the building and attend to family and other matters. Senate standing orders were similarly amended on 8 September 2022 to adjourn earlier on Mondays and defer divisions from 6:30pm on Mondays to Wednesdays. Also on 8 September, the House agreed to permit speeches to be made remotely in the Federation Chamber, on an ongoing basis, for any Member who has been granted leave of absence, such as for parental purposes.
