

Answer to question:

PARLIAMENTARY JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON MIGRATION

MIGRATION, PATHWAY TO NATION BUILDING INQUIRY

QUESTION: IDP01QON

One of the test providers whose test was concerned has since cancelled all those test results. There is a media piece on it. I don't have further details than that but I'm happy to send that through to you, and you can have a look at it.

Proof Hansard, 27 September 2023, p. 28

ANSWER:

PDFs of the two relevant articles provided via email attachment.

Helen Packer - The iNews - 'Academic
Pie News article.pdf misconduct' and poor

QUESTION: IDP02QON

What do you believe the most important of those incentives to be? Is it in fact a pathway to permanent residency? Are there any other measures that can also be thrown in as incentives?...

I actually have some data I can send through to you on this area as well...

ANSWER:

PDF of IDP Connect's Emerging Futures research provided via email attachment.

Emerging Futures 3
Summary Report.pdf

Key takeaways:

- Data and insights come from IDP's biannual student survey of over 21000 prospective students. It is a quantitative online survey.
- Primary factors in first choice (Canada):
 1. High quality of education
 2. Good employment opportunities after graduation
 3. Safety for international students
 4. Support for international students

5. Part-time work opportunities

- The committee may also wish to view the accompanying web article on post-study work as a driver in destination choice across Australia, Canada, UK, and USA.