

The CEFC needs to continue its work helping transition Australia to a clean energy economy.

This should not include gas or any fossil fuels. The independent think tank the Grattan institute has recently clearly articulated how gas is not a solution for jobs, covid recovery or the climate.

By investing in renewable energy we can transition Australia to a low carbon economy, meet our climate goals, increase employment and help Australia recover from covid-19.

Please do not pass the proposed legislation.