

EVERY MOMENT HAS POTENTIAL

Person Centred Active Support Online Learning Resource

Person Centred Active Support is an evidence-based approach to supporting people with intellectual disabilities. When Support Workers use Person Centred Active Support, it leads to a better quality of life for the people they support.

“Every Moment Has Potential” is an online learning resource that introduces Disability Support Workers to the Four Essentials of Person Centred Active Support and starts them on the road to putting these ideas into practice.

The resource has five modules of learning which include lecture and activity videos, exercises, reflective questions and access to further information. The resource can be used from smart phones, tablets and computers. A workbook, facilitator’s guide and additional resources can also be downloaded from the site. The resource is available now, at no cost, via the link below.

This online resource was funded by the Australian Government Department of Industry and is copyright Commonwealth of Australia 2015. It was developed in a collaboration between Greystanes Disability Services and the Living with Disability Research Centre at La Trobe University with the input of a wide range of stakeholders, including the Western Sydney Institute of TAFE NSW and an Industry Reference Group. Full credits are listed in the resource.
