

Parliament must be required to make a decision of war. Because our future military fiascos will be far more devastating than Afghanistan. For this reason, Parliament must also get into control of Australia's foreign policy, that has lately been run as a premeditation for murder-suicide.

And with best wishes and kind regards

I remain faithfully yours

Malgorzata Schmidt, MD, PhD