

| | |
|-------------------------|-------|
| Question Number: | 3 |
| Hansard page reference: | 37/38 |

Question:

Mr GEORGANAS: I suppose the other concerning thing—and I'm sure you would have seen it—is the media reports in the Australian Financial Review. One of the Westpac executives basically says that they paid millions of dollars for a PowerPoint presentation. I know we read all sorts of things in the media, but do you want to tell us why he'd make a comment like that about the security and the AUSTRAC stuff?

Mr Johnson: No, I don't know why a comment like that was made.

Mr GEORGANAS: Would it be possible to get a copy of that report for us?

Mr Johnson: I'm sorry, which report?

Mr GEORGANAS: The report that you did in 2017 for Westpac in terms of, precisely, financial crime regulation, where they asked you to do this PowerPoint presentation that this person is talking about.

Mr Johnson: I'll take that on notice.

Answer:

All engagements between EY and its clients are confidential and therefore EY is unable to produce copies of any deliverables associated with the type of engagement referenced above.

EY does not audit Westpac.