Question

CHAIR: Do you have a particular communications person who does that?

Ms O'Rourke: We've got a corporate affairs and communications team within ASIC.

CHAIR: How many people are in that team?

Mr Day: I'd have to take that away. I think there are about six or seven involved in that type of activity amongst other things.

Answer

As at 17 November, ASIC had five staff in the external communications team that, amongst other responsibilities, are involved in drafting and distributing ASIC media releases.
