Suspension of standing and sessional orders moved

Mr Abbott moved—That so much of the standing and sessional orders be suspended as would prevent the Member for Warringah moving immediately—That this House censure the Prime Minister for betraying the Australian people with the introduction of the world’s biggest carbon tax when she said, five days before the last election, in a phrase that will haunt her to her political grave, “there will be no carbon tax under the government I lead” and notes that:

- (1) the 72 Labor members of parliament that betrayed their electorates by voting for a carbon tax today stand condemned; and
- (2) all members supporting this toxic tax are duly warned that the Coalition will pursue every vote in every seat to give the Australian people their say on this carbon tax at the next election which has been denied to them today by a Prime Minister who has deceived them, and a Labor Party that has forgotten about families, abandoned workers and become a risk to our future prosperity.

Debate ensued.

The time allowed by standing order 1 for debate on the motion having expired—

Question—put.
