Mr McMullan made a statement in relation to the bill.

Bill read a first time.

Ordered—That the second reading be made an order of the day for the next sitting, in accordance with standing order 41.

10 PROTECTION OF THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL FLAG (DESECRATION OF THE FLAG) BILL 2006

Mrs B. K. Bishop, pursuant to notice, presented a Bill for an Act to amend the Criminal Code Act 1995 to prevent the destruction or desecration of the Australian National Flag.

Mrs B. K. Bishop made a statement in relation to the bill.

Documents

Mrs B. K. Bishop presented an explanatory memorandum to the bill and, by leave, presented the following document:

Judgment of Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal—Hong Kong Special Administrative Region v. Ng Kung Siu—FACC No. 4 of 1999, 15 December 1999.

Bill read a first time.

Ordered—That the second reading be made an order of the day for the next sitting, in accordance with standing order 41.

11 ACCOMMODATION AND CARE FOR THE DISABLED

Mrs Hull, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) notes that:
 - (a) ageing parents and carers of disabled children face a crisis of lack of accommodation options for disabled children;
 - (b) any ageing parents and carers of disabled children are in need of aged care accommodation for themselves;
 - (c) due to limited available accommodation options for disabled people, many aged carers of disabled people are significantly disadvantaged;
 - (d) there is an urgent need to assist ageing parents and carers of disabled children to access quality accommodation and care for disabled people;
 - (e) in October 2005 the Prime Minister announced a $200 million package to assist parents to establish private trusts for the future care of their disabled children; and
 - (f) there is an expert advisory group established to advise on the implementation of the package; and
- (2) calls on:
 - (a) the Minister to instruct the advisory group to consult widely on the merits of establishing a new financial and insurance product that would assist all parents of disabled children to plan for their future care; and
 - (b) both the State and Federal Governments to work together to urgently resolve this accommodation and care crisis.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

12 FARMERS

Mr Adams, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) congratulates the farmers of Tasmania on their bid to bring the plight of all farmers to the attention of the community and the Premier of Tasmania for supporting them;
- (2) condemns the Federal Government for:

- (a) the lack of labelling laws to allow the community to make their own decisions on the purchase of fresh food;
 - (b) the fact that farmers in Tasmania and the rest of Australia are suffering from the unlevel playing field that exists in the import and export of fresh foods;
 - (c) the fact the Federal Government is not achieving enough gains for farmers in their negotiations on free trade agreements with many countries, including the US and China; and
 - (d) the lack of leverage for farmers trying to negotiate fair and just contracting rates for their produce; and
- (3) calls on the Minister for Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries to introduce legislation to ensure that labelling of farm products is unambiguous and works for the benefit of all Australian primary producers.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted, the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting, and Mr Slipper was granted leave to continue his speech when the debate is resumed.

13 INDONESIA

Mr Fawcett, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) expresses its deep sorrow and its condolences to the Government of the Republic of Indonesia and to the families who have been directly affected by the killings of the three Indonesian girls that occurred Saturday, 29 October 2005, in Poso, Central Sulawesi, Indonesia;
- (2) strongly condemns the beheadings of the three Christian girls, students in Poso, which it considers as an act of brutality, terror, and a serious abuse of human rights, in that the fundamental human rights are the rights to life and religious freedom, which are guaranteed under the Indonesian Constitution;
- (3) welcomes steps by the Government of Indonesia to investigate the incident and its efforts to stop the climate of violence and to bring those responsible for this act of terror to justice; and
- (4) conveys to the Government and people of Indonesia that the Australian Government remains committed to peace and reconciliation in Indonesia, and to enhancing mutual understanding and cooperation among peoples of Indonesia and Australia.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted, the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting, and Mr Kerr was granted leave to continue his speech when the debate is resumed.

14 AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE MEDAL

Mr Windsor, by leave, for Mr Katter, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House resolves to accept the principle that the primary qualifying criteria for the Australian Defence Medal specify two years effective service, instead of six years, in line with the recommendation of the Returned and Services League of Australia.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

15 GRIEVANCE DEBATE

Pursuant to the provisions of standing order 44, the order of the day having been read—
