Commonwealth Electoral Officers for the States.

7. There shall be a Divisional Returning Officer for each Division, who shall be charged with the duty of giving effect to this Act within or for his Division subject to the directions of the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State.

Divisional Returning Officers.

8. Assistant Returning Officers may be appointed to exercise within or for any portion of a Division, subject to the control of the Divisional Returning Officer, all the powers of the Divisional Returning Officer except the powers of that officer under Part X. of this Act but no Assistant Returning Officer shall be appointed in or for any portion of a Division in which less than one hundred electors are enrolled.

Assistant Returning Officers.
S.A. 1890, No. 667 s. 24.

9. Electoral Registrars may be appointed to keep the rolls for specified polling places. The Divisional Returning Officer shall keep the rolls for all polling places for his Division for which no Registrar has been appointed.

Electoral Registrars.
W.A. 1899, No. 20 s. 11.
S.A. ib. s. 25.

10. All Returning Officers and Electoral Registrars shall keep forms of claims and applications for transfer, and shall without fee supply them and assist the public in their proper use.

Keeping of forms.

11. No candidate shall be appointed an officer, and if any officer becomes a candidate he shall thereby vacate his office.

Candidates not to be officers.
W.A. ib. s. 14.

PART III.—ELECTORAL DIVISIONS.

12. Each State shall be distributed into Electoral Divisions equal in number to the number of Members of the House of Representatives to be chosen therein, and one Member of the House of Representatives shall be chosen in each Division.

Divisions.

13. The Governor-General may appoint one person in each State to be the Commissioner for the purpose of distributing the State into Divisions in accordance with this Act.

Commissioner.
See N.S.W. 1893, No. 38 s. 5.

14. The Commissioner shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General.

Term of office.

15. For the purposes of this Act a quota shall be ascertained in each State as follows :—

Quota.
N.S.W. ib. s. 17 sub-sec. (1).

The whole number of electors in each State, as nearly as can be ascertained, shall be divided by the number of Members of the House of Representatives to be chosen therein.

Until rolls are compiled all persons qualified to have their names placed on a roll shall be deemed to be electors for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

16. In making any distribution of States into Divisions the Commissioner shall give due consideration to—

Matters to be considered in distribution of seats.
N.S.W. ib. s. 17 (iii.)

- (a) Community or diversity of interest,
- (b) Means of communication,
- (c) Physical features,
- (d) Existing boundaries of Divisions ;

and subject thereto the quota of electors shall be the basis for the distribution, and the Commissioner may adopt a margin of allowance, to be used whenever necessary, but in no case shall such quota be departed from to a greater extent than one-fifth more or one-fifth less.

Notice of proposed distribution.

17. Before reporting on the distribution of any State into Divisions the Commissioner shall cause a map of each proposed Division to be exhibited at post-offices in the proposed Division, and shall invite public attention thereto by advertisement in the Gazette.

Objections.

18. Objections or suggestions in writing may be lodged with the Commissioner not later than thirty days after the first publication of the proposed distribution, and the Commissioner shall consider all objections and suggestions so lodged before making his report.

Report of Commissioner.

19. The Commissioner shall forthwith, after the expiration of the thirty days above mentioned, forward to the Minister his report upon the distribution of the State into Divisions, and the number of electors residing in each proposed Division, together with a map signed by him showing the names and boundaries of each proposed Division.

Report to be laid before Parliament.
N. S. W. 1893,
No. 38 s. 15.

20. The report and map shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within seven days after its receipt if the Parliament is in session, and if not then within seven days after the commencement of the next session.

Proclamation of Divisions.
N. S. W. ib. s. 16.

21. If both Houses of Parliament pass a resolution approving of any proposed distribution the Governor-General may by proclamation declare the names and boundaries of the Divisions, and such Divisions shall until altered be the Electoral Divisions for the State in which they are situated.

Fresh
distribution.

22. If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disapproving of any proposed distribution, or negatives a motion for the approval of any proposed distribution, the Minister may direct the Commissioner to propose a fresh distribution of the State into Divisions.

Redistribution.

23. A redistribution of any State into Divisions shall be made in the manner hereinbefore provided whenever directed by the Governor-General by proclamation.

PART IV. — POLLING PLACES.

Polling places.

24. The Governor-General may, by proclamation—

- (a) Appoint a chief polling place for each Division ;
- (b) Appoint such other polling places for each Division as he thinks necessary ;
- (c) Declare that any polling place shall cease to be a polling place.

Provided that no polling place shall be so closed after the issue of the writ and before the time appointed for its return.

25. Before any polling place other than the chief polling place is appointed for any Division the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State shall report to the Minister specifying what polling places are required for the several Divisions in the State to meet the public convenience.

Report as to polling places.

26. The Governor-General may, by the proclamation declaring that any polling place shall cease to be a polling place, or by a subsequent proclamation, direct at what place electors previously entitled to vote thereat may vote.

Where electors to vote in case polling place abolished.

PART V.—ELECTORAL ROLLS.

27. Electoral Rolls of the electors in each State shall be prepared.

Rolls to be prepared.

28. There shall be a separate Roll for each Division and each Roll shall be divided according to polling places.

Separate Roll for Divisions.

29. The Rolls for all the Divisions in a State shall together form the Electoral Roll for the State.

State Roll.

30. The Rolls may be in the Form A in the Schedule and shall contain the particulars indicated in that Form.

Form of Rolls.

31. All persons qualified to vote at any Election for the Senate or House of Representatives, or who would be qualified so to vote if their names were upon a Roll, shall be qualified and entitled to have their names placed upon the Electoral Roll for the Division in which they live, but no person shall be qualified or entitled to have his name placed upon more than one Roll, or upon any Roll other than the Roll for the Division in which he lives.

Persons entitled to have their names on Roll.

Provided that any senator shall if he so desires be entitled to have his name placed on or retained on the Roll of any one Division of the State he represents instead of the Roll for the Division in which he lives, and that any member of the House of Representatives shall if he so desires be entitled to have his name placed on and retained on the Roll for any Division he represents instead of the Roll for the Division in which he lives.

32. The Commonwealth Electoral Officer for each State shall as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act prepare Lists of all persons qualified and entitled to have their names placed upon the Roll for the State, specifying in such Lists the particulars required to be specified in the Roll.

Lists for formation of Rolls.

33. All officers in the service of the Commonwealth and all police statistical and electoral officers in the service of any State or local governing body are hereby authorized and required to furnish to the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State all such information as he requires to enable him to prepare or revise the Lists.

Statistical officers to furnish information.

34. Copies of the Lists so far as they relate to any Electoral Division shall be exhibited at such police stations, post offices, State schools, and other places within the Division as the Commonwealth Electoral Officer directs and shall remain so exhibited for a period of thirty days.

Copies to be sent to Registrars.

35. A copy of the List of persons qualified to have their names placed upon an Electoral Roll to vote at any specified polling place shall be forwarded to the Electoral Registrar who is to keep the part of the Roll relating to that polling place.

Persons may claim to have their names put on the Lists.

36. Any person entitled to have his name placed upon the Roll for a Division may claim to have his name placed upon any List for the Division, and the Returning Officer or Electoral Registrar shall place his name on a List for the Division.

Officers may add names to List.

37. Divisional Returning Officers and Electoral Registrars may without claim place on the Lists the names of persons qualified to have their names placed on the Roll for the Division whose names have been omitted therefrom, and may strike off the Lists the names of deceased persons.

Special Court of Revision.

38. The Returning Officer for the Division together with—

- (a) a Police, Stipendiary, or Special Magistrate, or
- (b) two or more Justices of the Peace who are authorized by the Governor-General to sit as members of a Special Court of Revision, shall constitute a Special Court of Revision to revise the Lists, and shall sit for that purpose as soon as conveniently may be after the expiration of the thirty days during which the Lists have been exhibited in the Division.

Sittings of Special Court.

39. The Special Court of Revision may sit at any time between the hours of Seven a.m. and Twelve midnight and at any convenient places within the Division, and shall sit at such times and in such places as may be directed by the Minister, and it shall not be necessary for the same Magistrate or Justices of the Peace to be present at every sitting of the Court.

Notice of sittings.

40. The Returning Officer for the Division shall give at least thirty days public notice, by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the Division, of the times and places fixed for the sitting of the Court of Revision and of the Lists for specified polling places to be revised at the respective sittings of the Court.

Objections.

41. Any person may by writing object to any name being retained on the Lists on any of the following grounds:—

- (i.) That the person named is not qualified to have his name placed on any Roll;
- (ii.) That the person named does not live in the Division.

Provided that a sum of Five shillings shall be deposited in respect of each objection lodged by any person other than an officer, to be forfeited if the objection is held to be frivolous.

Repealed: - see Act 1602/1905

42. Every objection must be lodged with the Returning Officer at least ten days before the date fixed for the sitting of the Special Court of Revision.

Time for lodging objections.

43. Notice of every objection stating the grounds shall be served upon, or sent by post as a registered letter by the Returning Officer to, the person affected.

Notice of objection.

44. The Returning Officer may by summons under his hand require any person to appear as a witness before the Special Court of Revision, and any person served with any such summons and being tendered such expenses as prescribed who fails to obey it without just excuse shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

Power to summon witnesses.

45. The Special Court of Revision shall subject to section thirty-one revise the Lists for the Division in which it sits by striking out the names of all persons shown —

Powers of Special Court.

(a) to be dead;

(b) not to be qualified to have their names placed on a Roll;

(c) to be disqualified;

(d) not to live within the Division;

and by adding to the Lists the names of all persons shown to be qualified to have their names placed on the Roll for the Division and generally by correcting mistakes and supplying omissions.

46. The objector and the person whose name is objected to may appear before the Special Court of Revision in person or by an agent to support or resist the objection. If the objector or his agent do not appear the objection shall be deemed to be invalid.

Right of parties to appear.

47. If any objection is not established the Court may award to the person objected to a reasonable sum not exceeding Five pounds for costs, and he may recover the sum so awarded in any civil court as a debt due by the objector.

Power to award costs.

48. In revising the Lists the Special Court of Revision shall not be bound by any rules of evidence, but the Court may inform its mind on any matter in such manner as it thinks proper.

Rules of evidence.

49. When the revision of the Lists is completed the Lists shall be the Roll for the Division.

On revision Lists to become Rolls.

50. A new Roll for any Division, or new Rolls for all Divisions in a State, shall be prepared whenever directed by proclamation and in the manner therein specified.

New Rolls.

51. Each part of the Roll relating to a polling place shall be kept separately in a convenient book, and the surnames of the electors on each such part of the Roll shall be arranged in alphabetical order according to the first letter of each surname, and blank spaces shall be left for additions after each letter.

59. Every transfer shall be made by application to transfer in the Form C in the Schedule.

Method of transfer.

60. The application to transfer shall be signed by the elector in the presence of a witness and sent to the Returning Officer for the Division to which the elector's name is to be transferred.

Registration of transfer.

61. The Returning Officer shall note on the application to transfer the date of its receipt by him and shall file it in his office and shall register it by placing the elector's name on the Roll for the Division, and shall give notice of the transfer to the Returning Officer for the Division from which the elector's name has been transferred, who shall thereupon remove the elector's name from the Roll.

*Amended by Act 7826,
1905*

Alteration of rolls.
W.A. ib. s. 43.

62. Rolls may be altered by the Returning Officer or Electoral Registrar as follows:—

- (i.) By correcting any obvious mistake or omission;
- (ii.) By changing on the written application of the elector—
 - (a) The place of living to another within the same Division;

(b) The polling place to another for the same Division ;

(c) The original name of the elector to an altered name ;

(iii.) By striking out the names of dead persons ;

(iv.) By reinstating any name struck out by mistake as the name of a dead person and whether struck out by a Revision Court or otherwise.

63. On any change in the boundaries of a Division the Returning Officer for the Division shall make all alterations thereby rendered necessary in the Roll for the Division.

Adjustment of rolls on change in boundaries. W.A. 1899, No. 20 s. 43.

64. Claims and applications to transfer received by the Returning Officer or Registrar before the issue of the writ may be registered after the issue of the writ but otherwise no addition to or alteration of the Roll for any Division shall be made during the period between the issue of the writ for an election in the Division and the close of the polling at the election.

Time for altering rolls. See W.A. ib. s. 44.

65. All alterations shall be made in such a manner that the original entry shall not be obliterated, and the reason for the alteration and the date thereof shall be set against the alteration, together with the initials of the officer making the alteration.

Alterations to be initialed. W.A. ib. s. 45.

66. The Registrar-General of Deaths in each State shall in the months of March June September and December in each year forward to each Divisional Returning Officer in the State a list of the names addresses and occupations of all persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards whose deaths have been registered in the Division during the preceding three months, and the Divisional Returning Officer shall cause the names of the persons specified in the list to be struck off the Roll.

shall be incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a senator or a member of the House of Representatives.

But sub-section (iv.) does not apply to the office of any of the Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth, or of any of the Queen's Ministers for a State, or to the receipt of pay, half-pay, or a pension, by any person as an officer or member of the Queen's navy or army, or to the receipt of pay as an officer or member of the naval or military forces of the Commonwealth by any person whose services are not wholly employed by the Commonwealth.

97. No nomination shall be valid unless—

- (a) The person nominated consents to act if elected ;
- (b) The nomination paper is received after the issue of the writ and before the hour of nomination ;
- (c) The person nominated or some person on his behalf deposits with the Commonwealth Electoral Officer or Divisional Returning Officer at the time of the delivery of the nomination paper the sum of Twenty-five pounds in money or in bank notes or in a banker's cheque.

Requisites for nomination.
W.A. 1899,
No. 20 s. 81.
S.A. 1896,
No. 667 s. 95.

98. The consent of the person nominated to act if elected shall be sufficient if he signs the form of consent at the foot of the nomination paper, but the Commonwealth Electoral Officer or Divisional Returning Officer receiving the nomination may accept any other form of consent accompanying the nomination paper or received by him from the candidate that he may deem satisfactory and his decision shall be final.

Form of consent to act.

99. Nominations may be in the form I or J in the Schedule applicable to the case and shall—

- (a) Name the candidate his place of residence and occupation, and
- (b) Be signed by not less than six persons entitled to vote at the election.

Mode of nomination.
W.A. ib. s. 81.
S.A. ib. s. 95.

100. Nominations of Senators may be made to the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State in which the election is to be held, and nominations of Members of the House of Representatives may be made to the Divisional Returning Officer for the Division in which the election is to be held.

To whom nominations made.

101. Nominations may be received by the Commonwealth Electoral Officer or the Divisional Returning Officer at any time after the issue of the writ, and before the hour of nomination.

Time for receipt.
W.A. ib. s. 81 (d).
S.A. ib. s. 95 (d).

102. No nomination shall be rejected by reason of any formal defect or error therein if the Commonwealth Electoral Officer or Divisional Returning Officer receiving the nomination is satisfied that the provisions of this Act have been substantially complied with.

Formal defects.

103. The deposit made by or on behalf of a person nominated shall be retained pending the election, and after the election shall be returned unless the person on whose behalf it was made fails to obtain at the election more than one-fifth of the number of votes polled by the successful candidate who obtained the smallest number of votes at the election in which case it shall be forfeited to the King.

Deposit to be forfeited in certain cases.
W.A. ib. s. 120.

104. In elections for the Senate the place of nomination shall be stated in the writ. In elections for the House of Representatives the chief polling place for the Division shall be the place of nomination therein.

Place of nomination.

Hour of nomination.
W.A. 1899,
No. 20 s. 82.
S.A. 1896,
No. 667 s. 96.

105. Twelve o'clock noon on the day of nomination shall be the hour of nomination, and the Commonwealth Electoral Officer or Divisional Returning Officer shall then attend at the place of nomination and publicly produce all nomination papers received by him and declare the names and residences of all candidates nominated.

Proceedings on nomination day.
W.A. ib. s. 83.
S.A. ib. s. 97.

106. The Commonwealth Electoral Officer or Divisional Returning Officer shall declare the candidates nominated duly elected if no greater number are nominated than are required to be elected; but otherwise the proceedings shall stand adjourned to polling day.

Death of candidate after nomination.

107. If after the nominations have been declared and before polling day any candidate dies and the candidates remaining are not greater in number than the candidates required to be elected they shall forthwith be declared to be elected and the writ returned.

Failure of election.

108. Whenever an election wholly or partially fails a new writ shall forthwith be issued for a supplementary election.

An election shall be deemed to have wholly failed if no candidate is nominated or returned as elected.

An election shall be deemed to have partially failed whenever one or more candidates is returned as elected, but not the full number required to be elected.

PART X.—VOTING BY POST.

Application for a postal vote certificate.
S.A. ib. s. 98.
W.A. ib. s. 84.

109. Any elector—

- (a) who has reason to believe that he will on polling day be more than five miles from the polling place for which he is enrolled; or
- (b) who being a woman believes that she will on account of ill-health be unable on polling day to attend the polling place to vote; or
- (c) who will be prevented by serious illness or infirmity from attending the polling place on polling day;

may after the issue of the writ and before polling day make application in the Form K in the Schedule to the Returning Officer for the Division in which he lives for a postal vote certificate.

Certificate and ballot-paper.

110. The postal vote certificate in the Form L in the Schedule shall be delivered or posted to the elector, together with a postal ballot-paper with a counterfoil attached and also an envelope, duly addressed to the Returning Officer at the chief polling place of the Division. The postal ballot-paper may be in the Form M in the Schedule for elections for the Senate, and in the Form N for elections for the House of Representatives.

Returning Officer to initial ballot-paper.
S.A. ib. s. 100.

111. The Returning Officer shall initial all postal ballot-papers issued, and shall keep and number the applications in consecutive order, writing the corresponding number on the counterfoil of the ballot-paper.

112. Any elector who has received a postal ballot-paper shall in the presence of a postmaster or a police or stipendiary or special magistrate or a head master of a State school or such other person employed in the public service of the Commonwealth or of any State as may be appointed for the purposes of this section by the Governor-General and of no other person record his vote as follows :—

How vote recorded.
S. A. 1896,
No. 667 s. 101.

- (i.) By exhibiting the ballot-paper unmarked and in the condition in which it was issued :
- (ii.) By marking his vote on the ballot-paper, but so that the postmaster magistrate head master or other person appointed shall not see the vote :
- (iii.) By signing his name on the counterfoil :
- (iv.) By presenting the ballot-paper, folded up, to be witnessed :
- (v.) By enclosing the ballot-paper with the counterfoil attached as witnessed, together with the postal vote certificate in the envelope, addressed to the Returning Officer, and having closed the envelope, by handing it at once to such postmaster magistrate or head master or other person as aforesaid for posting.

For the purposes of this section the term "postmaster" shall mean a postmaster on the permanent classified list.

113. The vote may be marked on a postal ballot-paper—

Marking of postal vote.

- (a) In elections for the Senate by writing the name of each candidate for whom the elector votes on the ballot-paper ; and
- (b) In elections for the House of Representatives by writing the name of the candidate for whom the elector votes on the ballot-paper.

114. It shall be the duty of the postmaster police stipendiary special magistrate head master of a State school or other person appointed to immediately witness any postal ballot-paper presented for witnessing, and on no account except as provided in section one hundred and twenty-two to look at the voter's vote.

Witnessing of postal ballot-paper.

115. The postmaster, or police, stipendiary, or special magistrate, or head master of a State school, or other person employed in the public service of the Commonwealth or any State who is appointed by the Governor-General for the purposes of section one hundred and twelve of this Act who receives the envelope containing a postal ballot-paper for posting shall forthwith post it.

Postal ballot-paper to be immediately posted.

116. The vote marked on a postal ballot-paper shall not except as provided in section one hundred and twenty-two be looked at by any person other than the voter, until the counting of the votes at the scrutiny, and the envelope in which the postal ballot-paper is placed shall not, after it has been closed, be opened until the scrutiny.

Postal ballot-paper not to be opened until the scrutiny.

117. The Returning Officer shall note on the lists of voters all postal vote certificates issued ; and no elector who has received any such certificate shall be entitled to vote at any polling booth unless he delivers up his certificate to the presiding officer before he votes.

Returning Officer to notify issue of certificate.
S. A. ib. s. 103.

Advice to presiding officer.
S.A. 1896,
No. 667 s. 104.

118. If there is not time to conveniently note the issue of any postal vote certificate on any list of voters, the Returning Officer shall immediately advise the presiding officer at the polling place at which the elector is entitled to vote of the issue of the certificate.

Letters to be produced at scrutiny.
S.A. ib. s. 105.

119. At the scrutiny the Officer conducting the scrutiny shall produce, unopened, all envelopes containing postal votes received up to the close of the poll, and at the scrutiny the envelopes shall be opened in the presence of the scrutineers present, and shall be dealt with as follows:—

- (a) The Officer shall produce all applications for postal vote certificates :
- (b) The Officer, without unfolding the ballot-paper or allowing it to be inspected, shall compare the signature of the voter on the counterfoil with the signature to the application, and allow the scrutineers to inspect both signatures, and shall determine whether the signature on the ballot-paper is that of the applicant :
- (c) If the vote is allowed the Officer shall tear off the counterfoil and insert the ballot-paper in the ballot-box :
- (d) If the Officer rejects the ballot-paper, then the certificate and ballot-paper shall be preserved by him for production at any Court of Disputed Returns that may be held on or about the election, the ballot-paper being at once sealed up without being unfolded or inspected :
- (e) Ballot-papers so allowed shall be placed in a ballot-box by themselves, and, when they have all been inserted, the counting of the votes shall commence :
- (f) Postal ballot-papers which are not duly witnessed shall not be allowed at the scrutiny.

Officer to decide.
S.A. ib. s. 106.

120. The decision of the Officer conducting the scrutiny as to the allowance or disallowance of any postal vote shall be subject only to review by the Court of Disputed Returns.

Mistakes.
S.A. ib. s. 107.

121. No postal vote shall be rejected because the surname only of a candidate has been written thereon if no other candidate has the same surname nor by reason of any mistake in spelling where the elector's intention is clear.

Voter whose sight is impaired.

122. Where any elector who has received a postal ballot-paper satisfies the postmaster or police, stipendiary, or special magistrate or head master of a State school or other person appointed as aforesaid that his sight is so impaired that he is unable to vote without assistance such postmaster or police, stipendiary, or special magistrate or head master of a State school, or other person appointed as aforesaid may and at the request of such elector shall for him in the presence of a witness (if so desired by such elector) mark the postal ballot-paper as such elector may designate and indicate to such elector the place for his signature and if desired shall enclose the ballot-paper in the envelope produced.

PART XI.—THE POLLING.

123. If the proceedings on the day of nomination stand adjourned to polling day, the Returning Officer shall immediately make all necessary arrangements for taking the poll.

Polling.
W.A. 1890,
No. 20 s. 53

124. In particular he shall—

- (i.) Appoint a presiding officer to preside at each polling place at which he will not be continuously present :
- (ii.) Appoint all necessary poll clerks and doorkeepers :
- (iii.) Provide and furnish proper polling booths and ballot-boxes :
- (iv.) Provide ballot-papers and lists of voters.

135. Scrutineers may be appointed by candidates to represent them at polling places during the polling, but so that not more than one scrutineer shall be allowed to each candidate at each polling booth or subdivision of a polling booth, and appointments of scrutineers shall be made by notice to the Returning Officer, signed by the candidate, giving the name and address of the scrutineer, or without such notice by permission of the Returning Officer.

Persons present
at polling.
W.A. ib. s. 101.
S.A. ib. s. 124.

136. No candidate shall in any way take part in the conduct of an election ; and no one, other than the presiding officer, the poll clerks, doorkeepers, and scrutineers, and the electors voting and about to vote, shall be permitted to enter or remain in the polling booth during the polling except by permission of the presiding officer.

The polling.
W.A. ib. s. 103.
S.A. ib. s. 125.

137. The polling shall be conducted as follows :—

- (i.) Before any vote is taken the presiding officer shall exhibit the ballot-box empty, and shall then securely fasten and seal its inner cover so that nothing can be removed without breaking the seal :
- (ii.) The poll shall open at eight o'clock in the morning, and shall not close until all electors present in the polling booth at seven o'clock in the evening, and desiring to vote, have voted :
- (iii.) At the close of the poll the presiding officer shall publicly close, fasten, and seal the outer cover and take charge of the ballot-box, and with the least possible delay forward it for the purposes of scrutiny ; and it shall on no account be opened except as allowed by this Act.

138. Subject to section thirty-one an elector shall only be entitled to vote for the Division in which he lives, and for which he is enrolled, provided that an elector who has changed his place of living may continue to vote for the Division for which his name is enrolled until his name is transferred to some other Roll, if he has taken all necessary steps to procure the transfer of his name to the Roll for the Division in which he lives, forthwith, after he has lived in such Division for one month.

Electors to vote for division in which they live

139.—(1.) Any elector may vote at the polling place for which he is enrolled, or if he is absent from the polling place for which he is enrolled may vote at any other polling place for the same Division in an election for the House of Representatives, if he makes and signs before the presiding officer a declaration in the Form Q in the Schedule.

Where electors may vote.

(2.) Any elector when voting at a polling place at elections for the Senate shall, except as provided in sub-section (3) of this section, only be entitled to vote at the polling place for which he is enrolled.

(3.) Provided always that the regulations under this Act may provide facilities for enabling electors to vote at elections for the Senate or for the House of Representatives at other polling places within the State in which the election is held, and may provide for all matters (not inconsistent with this Act) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the purpose of carrying this part of this section into effect, and in particular for the following matters:—

- (a) The form of ballot-paper to be used;
- (b) The method of dealing with the ballot-papers; and
- (c) The allowance or disallowance and counting of the ballot-papers.

140. Every person claiming to vote at any polling booth shall state his christian name and surname, and, if so desired by the presiding officer, any other particulars necessary to be stated in the Roll for the purpose of identifying the name upon the Roll under which the vote is claimed.

Persons claiming to vote to give name and other particulars.

No. 20 s. 104
sub-s. (1.)

S. A. 1896,
No. 667 s. 126
sub-s. (1.)

141. The presiding officer may, and at the request of any scrutineer shall, put to any person claiming to vote all or any of the following questions:—

Questions to be put if voter challenged.

Q. 1885, No. 13
s. 63.

- (i.) Are you the person whose name appears as [here state name under which the person claims to vote] on the Roll for this Division?
- (ii.) Are you of the full age of twenty-one years?
- (iii.) Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this election?
- (iv.) Are you disqualified from voting?

142. If any person refuses to answer fully any question put to him by the presiding officer, or by his answer shows that he is not entitled to vote, his claim to vote shall be rejected.

Consequence of answers.

W. A. ib. s. 107.
S. A. ib. s. 129.

143. The voter's answer to the questions shall be conclusive, and the matter shall not be further inquired into during the polling.

No. 667 s. 131.

144. No omission of any christian name, or entry of a wrong christian name, or address, or occupation, and no mistake in the spelling of any surname, shall warrant the rejection at any polling of any claim to vote if the voter is sufficiently identified in the opinion of the presiding officer, and no female elector shall be disqualified from voting under the name appearing on the Roll because her surname has been changed by marriage.

Ballot-paper to be handed to elector.

145. If the name under which the person claims to vote is upon the List of voters for the polling place, and his right to vote is not challenged, or, if challenged, he answers the prescribed questions satisfactorily, the presiding officer or a poll clerk shall hand to him a ballot-paper duly initialed, but the presiding officer shall, at the request of any scrutineer, take note of any objection and keep a record thereof.

Provided that the fact that an elector's name is not on the List of voters for the polling place shall not prevent him from voting in cases where provision is made by regulation allowing electors to vote at polling places other than the polling places for which they are enrolled subject to section one hundred and thirty-nine.

List of voters to be marked on voting-paper being issued.

146. Immediately upon handing the ballot-paper to the person claiming to vote, the presiding officer shall place a mark against the person's name on the List of voters.

Vote to be marked in private.
W.A. ib. s. 104
sub-s. (3.)
S.A. ib. s. 126
sub-s. (iii.)

147. Upon receipt of the ballot-paper the voter shall without delay—

- (a) Retire alone to some unoccupied compartment of the booth, and there, in private, mark his vote on the ballot-paper in the manner hereafter described:
- (b) Fold the ballot-paper so as to conceal the names of the candidates and to clearly show the initials of the presiding officer, and exhibit it so folded to the presiding officer, and then forthwith openly, and without unfolding it, deposit it in the ballot-box:
- (c) Quit the booth.

Assistance to blind voters.

148. If any voter satisfies the presiding officer that his sight is so impaired or that he is so illiterate that he is unable to vote without assistance, the presiding officer in the presence of such scrutineers as may be present shall mark, fold, and deposit his ballot-paper for him.

Spoilt ballotpapers.
W.A. ib. s. 104
sub-s. (5.)
S.A. ib. s. 126
sub-s. (v.)

149. If any voter satisfies the presiding officer, before his ballot-paper is deposited in the ballot-box, that he has spoilt it by mistake or accident, he may, on giving it up, receive a new ballot-paper from the presiding officer, who shall there and then destroy the spoilt ballot-paper.

How votes to be marked in
Senate elections.

150. In elections for the Senate the voter shall mark his ballot-paper by making a cross in the square opposite the name of each candidate for whom he votes. The voter shall vote for the full number of candidates to be elected.

151. In elections for members of the House of Representatives the voter shall mark his ballot-paper by making a cross in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes.

How votes to be marked in House of Representatives elections.

152. The presiding officer may adjourn the polling from day to day in any case where the polling is interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence.

PART XII.—THE SCRUTINY.

General Provisions.

154. The result of the polling shall be ascertained by scrutiny.

Scrutiny.

155. The scrutiny shall be conducted as follows:—

W. A. ib. s. 110.

S. A. ib. s. 133.

(i.) It shall commence as soon as practicable after the closing of the poll:

How conducted.

W. A. ib. s. 111.

S. A. ib. s. 134.

(ii.) The scrutineers and any persons approved by the Officer conducting the scrutiny may be present:

(iii.) All the proceedings at the scrutiny shall be subject to the inspection of the scrutineers:

(iv.) All informal votes shall be rejected, and the number recorded:

(v.) The scrutiny may be adjourned as may be necessary until the counting of the votes is complete.

156. Each candidate may appoint one scrutineer to represent him at the scrutiny.

Power to appoint scrutineers.

157. Any scrutineer may object that any ballot-paper is informal, and thereupon the officer conducting the scrutiny shall mark the ballot-paper "admitted" or "rejected," according to his decision on the objection; and such decision shall be final, subject only to reversal by the Court of Disputed Returns.

Scrutineer may object to vote as informal.

W. A. ib. s. 111

(10).

S. A. ib. s. 134

(ix.).

158. A ballot-paper shall be informal if—

Informal ballot-papers.

(a) It is not duly initialed by the presiding officer; or

(b) In elections for the Senate it has (not being a postal ballot-paper) no cross in the square opposite the name of any candidate or has crosses in squares opposite the names of a greater or less number of candidates than the number required to be elected or being a postal ballot-paper it has no names written on it or has a greater or less number of names written on it than there are candidates required to be elected; or

(c) In elections for the House of Representatives it has (not being a postal ballot-paper) no cross in a square opposite the name of a candidate, or has crosses in squares opposite the names of more than one candidate, or being a postal ballot-paper it has no candidate's name written on it, or has the name of more than one candidate written on it ; or

- (d) It has upon it any mark or writing not authorized by this Act to be put upon it which in the opinion of the Returning Officer will enable any person to identify the voter.

Preservation of ballot-papers.

159. All ballot-papers used for voting shall be preserved as and in such custody as shall be prescribed until the election can be no longer questioned when they shall be destroyed.

Provisions relating to Elections for the Senate.

Scrutiny of votes in Senate
elections.

160. In elections for the Senate the scrutiny shall be conducted by Divisional Returning Officers and Assistant Returning Officers as follows :—

- (a) Each Divisional Returning Officer shall open all ballot-boxes for his Division except those to be opened by Assistant Returning Officers.
- (b) Each Assistant Returning Officer shall open all ballot-boxes from polling places within or for the portion of the Division in which he exercises his powers.
- (c) Divisional Returning Officers and Assistant Returning Officers shall count all the votes found in the boxes opened by them respectively, rejecting all informal ballot-papers, and shall make and keep a record of the number of votes counted by them from such boxes respectively.
- (d) Each Assistant Returning Officer shall seal up all ballot-papers counted by him, and shall certify by indorsement on the copy of the Writ received by him the number of votes given for each candidate as shown by the ballot-papers so counted ; and shall transmit the ballot-papers so sealed and the copy of the Writ so indorsed to his Divisional Returning Officer.
- (e) The Divisional Returning Officer shall certify by indorsement on his copy of the Writ the number of votes given for each candidate by electors enrolled for the Division and forward the copy of the Writ so indorsed to the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State.

Casting vote of Electoral Officer.

161. The Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State shall, from the copies of the Writ forwarded to him by the Divisional Returning Officers, ascertain the total number of votes polled by each candidate, and in the event of an equality of votes shall give a casting vote for the purpose of deciding the election, but except as provided in this section he shall not vote at the election. The candidates to the number required to be elected who receive the greatest number of votes shall be elected.

Provisions relating to Elections for the House of Representatives.

162. In elections for the House of Representatives the scrutiny shall be conducted by the Divisional Returning Officers and Assistant Returning Officers.

Scrutiny at elections for House of Representatives.

163. Each Assistant Returning Officer shall, in the presence of such scrutineers as choose to be present, open all ballot-boxes containing the ballot-papers received from polling places within or for that portion of the Division in which he exercises his powers, and shall—

Assistant Returning Officers to count votes.

- (i.) Arrange the ballot-papers under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those which have a cross set opposite the name of the same candidate, rejecting all informal ballot-papers.
- (ii.) Place in another parcel all the ballot-papers which have been rejected as informal.
- (iii.) Transmit the following information by telegram or some other expeditious manner to the Divisional Returning Officer—(a) The number of votes recorded for each candidate; and (b) The total number of ballot-papers rejected as informal.
- (iv.) Seal up such parcels and transmit them to the Divisional Returning Officer.

164. In elections for the House of Representatives the Divisional Returning Officer shall open all ballot-boxes not opened by Assistant Returning Officers, and shall deal with the ballot-papers therein by arranging them under the names of the respective candidates and placing in a separate parcel all those which have a cross set opposite the name of the same candidate, rejecting informal voting-papers, and on receipt of the information giving the results of the counting of the ballot-papers by the Assistant Returning Officers in the Division shall proceed to ascertain the final result of the election, and in the event of an equality of votes shall give a casting vote for the purpose of deciding the election, but except as provided in this section he shall not vote at the election. The candidate who receives the greatest number of votes shall be elected.

Counting of votes at elections for House of Representatives.

PART XIII.—THE RETURN OF THE WRITS.

165. In elections for the Senate, the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State in which the election is held shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the result of the election has been ascertained—

Return of writs for election of Senators.

- (a) At the place of nomination declare the result of the election and the names of the candidates elected:
- (b) By indorsement under his hand certify on the original writ the names of the candidates elected, and return the writ to the Governor of the State in which it was issued.

Return of writs for House of Representatives.

166. In elections for the House of Representatives the Divisional Returning Officer shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the result of the election has been ascertained—

- (a) At the chief polling place of the Division publicly declare the result of the election and the name of the candidate elected :
- (b) By indorsement under his hand certify on the original writ the name of the candidate elected, and return the writ through the Commonwealth Electoral Officer for the State in which the election is held.

PART XVI.—COURT OF DISPUTED RETURNS.

Method of disputing
elections.

192. The validity of any election or return may be disputed by petition addressed to the Court of Disputed Returns and not otherwise.

The Court of Disputed Returns.

193.—(1.) The High Court shall be the Court of Disputed Returns, and shall have jurisdiction either to try the petition or to refer it for trial to the Supreme Court of the State in which the election was held or return made.

(2.) When a petition has been so referred for trial to the Supreme Court of a State, that Court shall have jurisdiction to try the petition, and shall in respect of the petition be and have all the powers and functions of the Court of Disputed Returns.

(3.) Until the establishment of the High Court, the Supreme Court of each State shall be the Court of Disputed Returns in respect of elections held or returns made in that State; and the provisions of this Act with respect to the filing of petitions, the deposit of security, and the duties of the Registrar, shall be read as if the Supreme Court of the State, or the offices or Registrar, Master, or Prothonotary thereof, were substituted therein for the High Court or a Registry or Registrar thereof respectively.

(4.) The jurisdiction of the High Court or of the Supreme Court of a State sitting as a Court of Disputed Returns, or in the exercise of powers conferred by this section, may be exercised by a single Justice or Judge.

194. Every petition disputing an election or return in this Part of this Act called the petition shall— Requisites of petition.

- (a) Set out the facts relied on to invalidate the election or return :
- (b) Contain a prayer asking for the relief the petitioner claims to be entitled to :
- (c) Be signed by a candidate at the election in dispute or by a person who was qualified to vote thereat :
- (d) Be attested by two witnesses whose occupations and addresses are stated :
- (e) Be filed in the Principal Registry of the High Court or in the District Registry of that Court in the capital city of the State in which the election was held within forty days after the return of the writ.

195. At the time of filing the petition the petitioner shall deposit with the Principal Registrar or District Registrar (as the case may be) of the High Court the sum of Fifty pounds as security for costs. Deposit as security for costs.

196. No proceedings shall be had on the petition unless the requirements of the preceding sections are complied with. No proceeding unless requisites complied with.

197. The Court of Disputed Returns shall sit as an open Court and its powers shall include the following :— Powers of Court.

- (i.) To adjourn :
- (ii.) To compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents :
- (iii.) To examine witnesses on oath :
- (iv.) To declare that any person who was returned as elected was not duly elected :
- (v.) To declare any candidate duly elected who was not returned as elected :
- (vi.) To declare any election absolutely void :
- (vii.) To dismiss or uphold the petition in whole or in part :
- (viii.) To award costs :
- (ix.) To punish any contempt of its authority by fine or imprisonment.

198. The Court shall inquire whether or not the petition is duly signed, and so far as Rolls and voting are concerned may inquire into the identity of persons, and whether their votes were improperly admitted or rejected, assuming the Roll to be correct ; but the Court shall not inquire into the correctness of any Roll. Real justice to be observed.
W.A. 1899,
No. 26 s. 149.

199. The Court shall be guided by the substantial merits and good conscience of each case without regard to legal forms or technicalities, or whether the evidence before it is in accordance with the law of evidence or not.

Immaterial errors not to vitiate election.
W.A. ib. s. 150.
S.A. 1896,
No. 067 s. 186.

200. No election shall be avoided on account of any delay in the declaration of nominations, the polling, or the return of the writ, or on account of the absence or error of any officer which shall not be proved to have affected the result of the election.

Decisions to be final.
W.A. ib. s. 151.

201. All decisions of the Court shall be final and conclusive without appeal, and shall not be questioned in any way.

Copies of petition minutes of proceedings and order of Court to be sent to House affected.

202. The Principal Registrar or District Registrar of the High Court shall forthwith after the filing of the petition forward to the Clerk of the House of the Parliament affected by the petition a copy of the petition, and after the trial of the petition shall forthwith forward to such Clerk a copy of the order of the Court.

Deposit applicable for costs.
W.A. ib. s. 154.
S.A. ib. s. 190.

203. If costs are awarded to any party against the petitioner, the deposit shall be applicable in payment of the sum ordered, but otherwise the deposit shall be repaid to the petitioner.

Other costs.
W.A. ib. s. 155.

204. All other costs awarded by the Court, including any balance above the deposit payable by the petitioner, shall be recoverable as if the order of the Court were a judgment of the High Court of Australia, and such order, certified by the Court, may be entered as a judgment of the High Court of Australia, and enforced accordingly.

Effect of decision.
W.A. ib. s. 156.
S.A. ib. s. 192.

205. Effect shall be given to any decision of the Court as follows :—

- (i.) If any person returned is declared not to have been duly elected, he shall cease to be a Senator or Member of the House of Representatives ;
- (ii.) If any person not returned is declared to have been duly elected, he may take his seat accordingly ;
- (iii.) If any election is declared absolutely void a new election shall be held.

Power to make rules of Court.

206. The Justices of the High Court or a majority of them or until the High Court is established the Governor-General may make Rules of Court not inconsistent with this Act for carrying this Part of this Act into effect and in particular for regulating the practice and procedure of the Court the forms to be used and the fees to be paid by parties.

To be laid before the Parliament.

Every Rule of Court made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before the Senate and the House of Representatives within forty days next after it is made if the Parliament is then sitting, or if the Parliament is not then sitting then within forty days after the next meeting of the Parliament ; and if an Address is presented to the Governor-General by either House of the Parliament within the next subsequent forty sitting days of the House praying that any such rule may be annulled the Governor-General may thereupon annul the same ; and the rule so annulled shall thenceforth become void and of no effect, but without prejudice to the validity of any proceedings which have in the meantime been taken under it.

PART XVII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

207. All electoral papers provided for by this Act may be transmitted through the post free of charge, subject to any postal regulations, and all papers so transmitted, if duly addressed, shall, on proof of posting, unless the contrary be shown, be deemed to have been duly served on and received by the person to whom they were addressed on the day when in the ordinary course of post they should have been received at his address.

Electoral matter to be sent free by post.
S.A. 1896, No. 667 s. 193.

208. In all cases where it is impracticable to communicate any electoral matter by post without occasioning undue delay, any telegraphic advice communicated in the ordinary course shall suffice for all the purposes of this Act as if the matter telegraphed had been communicated in manner provided by this Act.

Electoral matter may be sent by telegraph.
See S.A. ib. s. 194.

209. The Forms in the Schedule may be varied as the circumstances of the case may require.

Forms may be varied.

210.—(1.) The Governor-General may make regulations for carrying out this Act.

Regulations.

(2.) All such regulations shall be notified in the Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3.) All such regulations shall be laid before both Houses of the Parliament within thirty days after the making thereof if the Parliament is then sitting, and if not then within thirty days after the next meeting of the Parliament.
