10 ORDERS OF THE DAY RETURNED TO THE HOUSE

On the motion of Mr Albanese (Leader of the House), the following Main Committee orders of the day, private Members' business, were returned to the House for further consideration and the resumption of each debate made an order of the day for a later hour this day:

No. 4—Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Amendment (Fair Protection for Firefighters) Bill 2011;

No. 8—Disability services; and

No. 21—Tobacco marketing.

11 SUSPENSION OF STANDING AND SESSIONAL ORDERS—PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

Mr Albanese (Leader of the House), by leave, moved—That so much of the standing and sessional orders be suspended as would prevent the following items of private Members' business being called on, and considered immediately in the following order:

Tobacco marketing—Order of the day;

Disability services—Order of the day; and Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Amendment (Fair Protection for Firefighters) Bill 2011—Order of the day.

Question—put and passed.

12 TOBACCO MARKETING

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the motion of Ms Rishworth—That this House:

- (1) notes the devastating impact of tobacco products on the lives of Australians, with smoking causing numerous life threatening diseases including cardiovascular disease, lung cancer, stomach cancer, pancreatic cancer, liver cancer, cervical cancer, leukaemia and oral cancers, and that the majority of smokers regret the decision to ever start;
- (2) acknowledges that there is significant evidence to suggest that creative design, branding and promotion of tobacco through its packaging:
 - (a) reduces the impact of graphic health warnings;
 - (b) increases the attractiveness and appeal of tobacco products for adolescents; and
 - (c) misleads consumers to believe that some tobacco products are less harmful than others;
- (3) recognises that this Government is already implementing a suite of reforms aimed at reducing smoking and its harmful effects; and
- (4) supports the significant measures proposed by this Government including the measure to mandate plain packaging of tobacco products from 1 July 2012—

Question—That the motion be agreed to—put and passed.

13 DISABILITY SERVICES

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the motion of Mr Neumann—
That this House:

- (1) welcomes the Productivity Commission's final report into disability care and support, released on 10 August 2011;
- (2) notes the assessment of the Productivity Commission that the current system of disability care and support is unsustainable, underfunded, unfair and does not deliver appropriate levels of care and support to Australians with disability;
- (3) supports the vision set out by the Productivity Commission for a national disability insurance scheme which delivers individualised care and support for Australians with significant disability over the course of their lives, and provides universal insurance for care and support for Australians in the event of significant disability;
- (4) commends the Australian Government's commitment to fundamental reform of disability services, and the start of work to prepare for a scheme, consistent with the recommendations of the Productivity Commission;
- (5) recognises the work of the Australian Government to increase funding and put reform to services to Australians with disabilities on the national agenda, including improving access to early intervention services for children with disabilities, record increases to pensions for people with disabilities and their carers and doubling funding to the States and Territories to deliver disability services; and
- (6) welcomes the agreement of the Council of Australian Governments to immediate action to deliver foundation reforms necessary for a national disability insurance scheme—

Question—That the motion be agreed to—put and passed.

14 SAFETY, REHABILITATION AND COMPENSATION AMENDMENT (FAIR PROTECTION FOR FIREFIGHTERS) BILL 2011

The order of the day having been read for the further consideration in detail of the bill—
