

and "I refuse that, I have got this job. It's been twenty three years. I've been fighting for a long time and it takes a bit out of you but I don't want to give up on it - I need my arm."
 "I know a lot of people say it's just an arm, chop it off."
 "But put yourself in those shoes with five children, I'm not giving up now. I refuse. I don't give up, my family doesn't give up."

 The children's actions to save their mother have been covered in the Australian Grammy Awards, presented on Sunday, to Ted Ayres, Caitfield and Cameron

Caitfield an employee of the Star of Courage Award. Just six individuals will receive these awards in 2011 and the Caitfield brothers are likely to be the only siblings to have ever received this accolade. They are also likely to be the youngest. Kayla Caitfield and Zoe Field (Caitfield) will join 24 other

As Caitfield agreed receiving the letters about their respective awards was a relief, but as for her...
 Caitfield said he wanted to see his Star of Courage award to help help or children who had experienced or are experiencing domestic violence.
 "Domestic violence is such a big issue lately, especially the last one the one...

 When those said the award her children to have the awards to look back on.
 "I think even so it will be something they'll be really proud of and have on show their children," she said.
 "Even if you guys don't think you're great. Australia's best," she said.

Being a pensioner definitely has its perks.

You've probably heard about the free hearing aids available under the Australian Government Hearing Services Program. However, knowing who to talk to, what services are available or even how to apply, can be confusing and time-consuming.

At HearingLife, our expert clinicians will be with you every step of the way. As a Government-accredited service provider, we will guide you through the paperwork and provide expert advice on selecting the right hearing device for you from our state-of-the-art range.

Call 1800 511 109 to book your free, no-obligation appointment, and we'll do the rest.

It's all part of the service:

-
FREE hearing check*
-
FREE
 easy-to-use hearing aids
-
 Comfort guaranteed fitting
-
 Individualised warranties & maintenance*
-
 Ongoing follow-up service & advice

WIN one of 100 $50 Coles Group & Myer Gift Cards!

For your chance to win, book your free hearing check before 9 April 2011.

HEARINGLife
 hearinglife.com.au

*Conditions apply. See www.hearinglife.com.au for details. Hearing Services Program. Free hearing check is only available to those aged 65 or over. Offer valid by 9 April 2011. For more information, visit www.hearinglife.com.au or call 1800 511 109.