

Conditions of entry

1 It is a condition of entry to Parliament House that:

- (a) you consent to personal security screening and screening of any items you wish to bring into Parliament House;
- (b) you surrender or cloak any item not permitted in Parliament House;
- (c) you are able to be cleared by the screening processes for entry to Parliament House; and
- (d) any other items you wish to bring into Parliament House are able to be cleared by the screening processes.

2 It is a condition of entry to Parliament House that, while in Parliament House or its internal courtyards, you:

- (a) do not disrupt the order or decorum of Parliament House;
- (b) do not disrupt the security arrangements in Parliament House; and
- (c) comply with:
 - (i) the Presiding Officers' policy on smoking in the Parliamentary precincts;
 - (ii) the Presiding Officers' Guidelines for Filming and Photography in Parliament House;

(iii) the Presiding Officers' Guidelines on Protests and other assemblies in the Parliamentary precincts.

3 It is a condition of entry to the Chamber galleries that:

- (a) you consent to personal security screening and screening of any items you wish to bring into the galleries;
- (b) you surrender or cloak any item not permitted in the galleries;
- (c) you are able to be cleared by the screening processes for entry to the galleries; and
- (d) any other items you wish to bring into the galleries are able to be cleared by the screening processes.

4 It is a condition of entry to the Chamber galleries and committee rooms that, while in the galleries or rooms, you:

- (a) comply with all the conditions of entry to Parliament House mentioned in paragraph 2 above; and
- (b) do not disrupt proceedings in the Chambers or committee rooms.

5 Copies of the Presiding Officers' policies mentioned in paragraph 2 above will be made available on request to a Parliamentary Security Service officer.

These conditions were approved by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives on 13 June 2007.