QUALIFICATION CHECKLIST

Relating to your eligibility under Section 44 of the Australian Constitution

Candidate's name

ANDREW GEE

Please fill out this checklist.

Be aware that completing this checklist does not guarantee that you are eligible to be elected under section 44 of the Australian Constitution or under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

If you have any doubts about your eligibility, you should seek independent legal advice.

If you provide information in this checklist that you know is false or misleading, you may commit an offence against the Criminal Code with a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 12 months, $12,600 or both.

You must answer every question in the checklist that has check boxes by marking one, and only one, of the boxes provided. Your nomination will be rejected if you do not mark any of the boxes, or if you mark more than one of the boxes, provided for any of these questions.

Please provide supporting documentation as appropriate. You may provide additional documents if you are unable to fit all your responses in this checklist.

Note: If you answer 'yes' in question 10 then you must provide at least one document in response to question 10a.

You should not include information in this checklist, or in any additional documents you provide, that is inappropriate in any way. If you do, the information may be redacted by the Electoral Commissioner and not published on the Australian Electoral Commission's website.

You may choose to redact information (for example, your own or another person's personal information) from additional documents before providing them. Redactions must be in accordance with any directions of the Electoral Commissioner.

The candidate statement and declaration that you have made elsewhere in this nomination also relate to your eligibility to be elected. In that statement and declaration:

- (a) you have declared that you are qualified under the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth to be elected as a Senator or member of the House of Representatives; and
- (b) you have stated that you are an Australian citizen.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) are mandatory

1. Do you know the place of birth of each of your parents and grandparents (whether biological or adoptive)?*  YES  NO

- 1a. Please provide any relevant details (for example, why you do not know the place of birth of a parent or grandparent):

Other relevant details relating to your knowledge of your parents' and grandparents' places of birth

[Please provide particulars of, or documents related to, any details provided in response to question 1a. These will be published with this checklist on the Australian Electoral Commission's website.]

4a. Please provide any relevant details (for example, why you do not know the citizenships held at a particular time by a particular parent or grandparent):

Other relevant details relating to your knowledge of your parents' and grandparents' citizenships

My paternal grandmother was born in Ireland and was probably considered a British citizen when she emigrated to Australia from England as a Barnardos child. Even assuming that my grandmother was a British citizen, prior to 1983, a person could inherit British citizenship only from his or her father (see subsection 1(1)(b) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act 1914, and section 5 of the British Nationality Act 1948). My father therefore cannot have inherited British citizenship from my grandmother, which means that such citizenship could not have passed to me either.

Further, under the 1948 Act, the general rule was that no person born between 1949 and 1983 could become a British Citizen by descent from a parent who was himself a citizen by descent only (see section 5). The limited exceptions to this rule are not relevant to me. Therefore, even if my father was somehow a British citizen by descent, I cannot myself have inherited that citizenship.

Mr. Andrew Gee MP
Federal Member for Calare
Suite 1/179A Anson Street
PO Box 673
Orange NSW 2800

Dear Mr. Gee

Thank you for your letter of 22 November 2017 concerning Irish citizenship.

In order for an individual to become an Irish citizen by descent they are required under the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 1956 - 2011 to apply for entry into the Foreign Births Register. You have confirmed that you have never sought to have your birth registered in the Foreign Births Register and that no such application has been made on your behalf.

Where such applications were not made for an individual born outside Ireland to parents who were also born outside Ireland, citizenship by descent could not have been granted to that individual.

I hope that this clarifies matters for you.

Yours sincerely

Eamonn Robinson
Deputy Head of Mission
