

THE SPEAKER'S SCHEDULE OF OUTSTANDING GOVERNMENT RESPONSES
TO REPORTS OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND JOINT COMMITTEES

(also incorporating reports tabled and details of Government responses
made in the period between 24 November 2010, the date of the last schedule, and 6 July 2011)

7 July 2011

THE SPEAKER'S SCHEDULE OF OUTSTANDING GOVERNMENT RESPONSES TO COMMITTEE REPORTS

The attached schedule lists committee reports tabled and government responses to House and joint committee reports made since the last schedule was presented on 26 November 2010. It also lists reports for which the House has not received a government response. Schedules of outstanding responses will continue to be presented at approximately six monthly intervals, generally in the last sitting weeks of the winter and spring sittings.

The schedule does not include advisory reports on bills introduced into the House of Representatives unless the reports make recommendations which are wider than the provisions of the bills and which could be the subject of a government response. The Government's response to these reports is apparent in the resumption of consideration of the relevant legislation by the House. Also not included are reports from the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works, the House of Representatives Committee of Privileges and Members' Interests, and the Publications Committee (other than reports on inquiries). Government responses to reports of the Public Works Committee are normally reflected in motions for the approval of works after the relevant report has been presented and considered. Reports from other committees which do not include recommendations are only included when first tabled.

Reports of the Joint Committee of Public Accounts and Audit primarily make administrative recommendations but may make policy recommendations. A government response is required in respect of such policy recommendations made by the committee. Responses to administrative recommendations are made in the form of an Executive Minute provided to, and subsequently tabled by, the committee. Agencies responding to administrative recommendations are required to provide an Executive Minute within 6 months of tabling a report. The committee monitors the provision of such responses.

Notes

1. The date of tabling is the date the report was presented to the House of Representatives or to the Speaker, whichever is earlier. In the case of joint committees, the date shown is the date of first presentation to either the House or the Senate. Reports published when the House (or Houses) are not sitting are tabled at a later date.
2. If the source for the date is not the Votes and Proceedings of the House of Representatives or the Journals of the Senate, the source is shown in an endnote.
3. For reports up to the end of 42nd Parliament, the time specified is three months from the date of tabling. For reports from the 43rd Parliament (28/09/10 onwards) the period is 6 months - see resolution of the House of Representatives of 29/09/10.
4. In July 2011 the government indicated that as circumstances and policy settings have altered since the report was tabled in 2005, it did not propose to respond to the report.
5. In July 2011 the government advised that it did not intend to respond to the report because of the time elapsed since its tabling. Key recommendations relate to the introduction of a licensing exemption for accountants who provide certain financial services. The government advised that this issue is being addressed by the Future of Financial Advice reforms which will come into effect on 1 July 2012.
6. In July 2011 the government indicated it did not intend to respond to the report because of the time elapsed since the report was tabled. Key recommendations relate to licensing exemption for accountants who provide certain financial services. The exemption is being addressed by the Future of Financial Advice reforms which will come into effect on 1 July 2012.
7. In July 2011 the government advised that it did not intend to respond to the report because of the time elapsed since the report was tabled; and the significant developments in the corporate social responsibility area since the inquiry.
8. In July 2011 the government advised that it did not intend to respond to the report because of the time elapsed since the report was tabled.
9. On 14 May 2009 a partial response to the report was presented from the Reserve Bank of Australia. In July 2011 the government indicated that this report has been overtaken by the recommendations of the Senate Economics References Committee report on Competition within the Australian Banking Sector.

10. In June 2009 the government advised that it did not intend to respond formally to this report. The committee awaits a response to recommendations of the report. In November 2009 the government indicated a response is being considered and will be tabled in due course.
11. On 13 May 2010 the Presiding Officers' response to recommendation 1 was tabled.
12. On 3 February 2010 a government response to the Committee's final report was tabled. The Committee wrote to the Minister seeking a response to the separate recommendations of the interim report. The Minister's letter of 6 April 2011, providing comments on the recommendations of the interim report, has been authorised for publication, in lieu of a response.
13. Recommendation 1 of the report was implemented on 20/10/10 when Standing Orders 207 and 209 were adopted permanently.
14. Partial response received – awaiting full response.
15. Partial response received, but the Committee has given until the end of the current calendar year for the full response.
16. Response by Presiding Officers tabled 25 November 2010.
17. Partial response - recommendations 6, 7 and 11.
18. Partial response – recommendations 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. The Government has indicated responses are not required on the outstanding recommendations, and the Committee has agreed. This report will be removed from subsequent schedules.
