

ANNEX II
SCHEDULE OF INDONESIA
INTRODUCTORY NOTES

SECTION A

Section A of Indonesia's Schedule to this Annex sets out, in accordance with Article 9.7 (Non-conforming Measures), the specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which Indonesia may maintain existing, or adopt new or more restrictive, measures that do not conform with obligations imposed by:

- (a) Article 9.3 (National Treatment);
- (b) Article 9.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment);
- (c) Article 9.5 (Market Access); or
- (d) Article 9.6 (Local Presence).

SECTION B

1. Articles 14.4 (National Treatment), 14.5 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment), 14.6 (Prohibition of Performance Requirements), and 14.10 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) apply only to the following sectors:

- (a) manufacturing;
- (b) agriculture;
- (c) fisheries;
- (d) forestry;
- (e) mining and quarrying;
- (f) energy infrastructure, specifically power plants of more than 10 Megawatts and geothermal power plants of less than or equal to 10 Megawatts; and

(g) transport infrastructure, specifically highway, bridge and tunnel concessions.

2. Section B of Indonesia's Schedule to this Annex sets out, in accordance with Article 14.14 (Non-conforming Measures), the specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities, within the sectors listed in paragraph 1, for which Indonesia may maintain existing, or adopt new or more restrictive, measures that do not conform with obligations imposed by:

- (a) Article 14.4 (National Treatment);
- (b) Article 14.5 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment);
- (c) Article 14.6 (Prohibition of Performance Requirements); or
- (d) Article 14.10 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors).

3. For greater certainty, in accordance with Article 14.3.3 (Relation to Other Chapters), for the purposes of the application of Article 14.14 (Non-Conforming Measures) to measures affecting the supply of a service by a service supplier of Australia through commercial presence in the territory of Indonesia, an entry listed against Article 9.3 (National Treatment) and Article 9.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) in Section A, shall also be considered an entry in respect of Article 14.4 (National Treatment) and Article 14.5 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) respectively in Section B.

4. The recognition of Australian permanent residents shall be limited to Australian permanent residents who have the nationality of a country that already has an investment agreement or a free trade agreement (with an investment chapter) in force with Indonesia. Such recognition shall not apply to an Australian permanent resident who is also an Indonesian national. Furthermore, in accordance with Article XXVIII(k)(2) of GATS, Indonesia shall not be obliged to accord to such permanent residents treatment more favourable than would be accorded by Australia to such residents.

SECTION A

- 1. Sector: : All Sectors
- Obligations Concerned: : National Treatment (Article 9.3)
Market Access (Article 9.5)
Local Presence (Article 9.6)

- Description: : Trade in Services

Indonesia reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that does not conform with the obligations imposed by Articles 9.3 (National Treatment), Article 9.5 (Market Access) and 9.6 (Local Presence), except in the sectors and sub-sectors where it has made commitments in accordance with Article 9.7.1 (Non-Conforming Measures) in Annex I of this Schedule, or with respect to the sectors and sub-sectors listed in Appendix A to this Annex:

- a) including any undertakings relating to additional commitments set out in that Appendix; and
- b) subject to the terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications set out in that Appendix.

To the extent that the terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications applied to a particular service supplier of Australia in the sectors or sub-sectors listed in Appendix A are more favourable on or after the date of entry into force of this Agreement than the terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications listed in Appendix A, the applied terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications shall not be changed or modified so as to become more restrictive to such a service supplier, provided that there is no amendment to its principal or operational licenses resulting from a request by the service supplier. For greater certainty, any amendments to the principal or operational license requested by a service supplier would be treated as a new entry to the market as at the date of the effect of the amendments.

2. Sector:	: All Sectors
Obligations Concerned:	: Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment (Article 9.4)
Level of Government:	: Central
Description:	: Trade in Services

Indonesia reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords more favourable treatment to any services or service suppliers under any bilateral or multilateral international agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

Indonesia reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords more favourable treatment to any services or service suppliers under any bilateral or multilateral international agreement signed after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, except with respect to the sectors and sub-sectors listed in Appendix B to this Annex.

For sectors not listed in Appendix B, if, after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, Indonesia subsequently enters into any agreement with a non-Party in which it accords treatment to services or service suppliers of that non-Party more favourable than it accords to like services or service suppliers of Australia, Australia may request consultations to discuss the possibility of extending such treatment. On request from Australia, Indonesia will give consideration to negotiate for the incorporation of treatment no less favourable than that provided under the agreement in question. Such incorporation shall take into account the overall balance of benefits.

Notwithstanding the above, Indonesia reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords more favourable treatment:

- (a) to ASEAN member states under any ASEAN agreement open to participation by any ASEAN member state, in force or signed after the date of entry into force of this Agreement;
- (b) with respect of advantages accorded to adjacent countries to the extent covered by paragraph 3 of Article II of the GATS; and

- (c) to any services or service suppliers under any international agreement in force or signed after the date of entry into force of this Agreement involving:
- i) aviation;
 - ii) fisheries; or
 - iii) maritime matters, including salvage.

APPENDIX A

1. Appendix A of Indonesia's Schedule to this Annex sets out:
 - a) The specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which Indonesia makes commitments subject to terms, limitations, conditions, and qualifications on:
 - (i) National Treatment (Article 9.3);
 - (ii) Market Access (Article 9.5); or
 - (iii) Local Presence (Article 9.6).
 - b) The specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which Indonesia undertakes additional commitments.
2. The 'Limitations on Market Access' and 'Limitations on National Treatment' columns refer to the supply of a service:
 - 1) from the territory of a Party into the territory of the other Party (Mode 1);
 - 2) in the territory of a Party to a person of the other Party (Mode 2);
 - 3) by a service supplier of a Party, through commercial presence in the territory of the other Party (Mode 3); and
 - 4) by a natural person of a Party in the territory of the other Party (Mode 4).
3. The inscription of sectoral commitments and its limitations, follows the Guidelines for Scheduling of Specific Commitments (WTO Document S/L/92, dated 28 March 2001).
4. Any terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications applicable to Article 9.6 (Local Presence) shall be inscribed in the column relating to National Treatment.
5. Double asterisk after a CPC number indicates that the service specified constitutes only a part of the total range of activities covered by the CPC concordance.
6. In the absence of a specific reference to CPC numbers, the scope of sub-sectors/activities covered by an entry will be subject to relevant and applicable references, including:
 - a) in the case of Financial Services, reference would be made to the GATS Annex on Financial Services;

- b) in the case of Air Transport, the scope of activities would be in accordance with Chapter 9 (Trade in Services), unless qualified by reference to the Indonesian Standard Industrial Classification (Klasifikasi Baku Lapangan Usaha Indonesia/KBLI) 2015; or
- c) in the case of other sectors, reference would be made to Indonesia Standard Industrial Classification (Klasifikasi Baku Lapangan Usaha Indonesia/KBLI) 2015.

7. "Joint Operation ": A joint operation is an undertaking between one or more foreign and Indonesian enterprises of a temporary nature, to handle one or more projects/businesses without establishing a new statutory body in accordance with Indonesian laws.

8. "Joint venture": A joint venture enterprise is a legal entity organised under Indonesian law and having its domicile in Indonesia, in the form of cooperation between foreign capital and Indonesian (national) capital.

9. "Representative office": A representative office is an office headed by one or more foreign or Indonesian citizens appointed by a foreign enterprise or joint venture enterprise located outside of Indonesia as its representative, which aims to:

- a) be in charge of the enterprise's business or its affiliated enterprises, or;
- b) prepare the establishment and expansion of foreign capital investment enterprises, either located in Indonesia or in other countries.
