INTRODUCTORY NOTES

1. For the avoidance of doubt, and recalling i) subparagraph 6(a) of Article 13.13 (Non-Conforming Measures – Investment) and subparagraph 3(b) of Article 8.2 (Scope – Cross-Border Trade in Services) relating to the exclusion of government procurement; and ii) subparagraph 6(b) of Article 13.13 (Non-Conforming Measures – Investment) and subparagraph 3(d) of Article 8.2 (Scope – Cross-Border Trade in Services) relating to the exclusion of subsidies or grants provided by a Party:

In relation to Research and Development (R&D) services, Chapter 13 (Investment) and Chapter 8 (Cross-Border Trade in Services) shall not interfere with the ability of the UK to grant exclusive rights or authorisations, for publicly funded R&D services, to nationals of the UK or enterprises of the UK having their registered office, central administration, or principal place of business in the UK.

2. With respect to computer services, any of the following services shall be considered as ‘computer and related services’, regardless of whether they are delivered via a network, including the Internet:
 - (a) consulting, adaptation, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, support, technical assistance, or management of or for computers or computer systems;
 - (b) computer programmes defined as the sets of instructions required to make computers work and communicate (in and of themselves), as well as consulting, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, adaptation, maintenance, support, technical assistance, management, or use of or for computer programmes;
 - (c) data processing, data storage, data hosting, or database services;
 - (d) maintenance and repair services for office machinery and equipment, including computers; and
 - (e) training services for staff of clients, related to computer programmes, computers or computer systems, and not elsewhere classified.

For greater certainty, services enabled by computer and related services, other than those listed in (a) to (e), shall not be regarded as ‘computer and related services’ in themselves.

3. For greater certainty, the fact that a Party has made an entry does not necessarily mean that, in the absence of such an entry, the measure would be inconsistent with the obligations under Chapter 13 (Investment) and Chapter 8 (Cross-Border Trade in Services).
4. With respect to Annex II Entry 1 on Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment relating to agreements, the absence of language regarding the scope of the entry for differential treatment resulting from an amendment of those agreements in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement is without prejudice to the UK’s interpretation of the scope of the entry.

Entry No. II-1 – All sectors

Sector	All sectors
Obligations Concerned	Market Access National Treatment Local Presence Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment Senior Management and Boards of Directors Performance Requirements
Description	The UK reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with respect to the following: (a) Public utilities With respect to Investment – Market Access: Services considered as public utilities at a national or local level may be subject to public monopolies or to exclusive rights granted to private operators. Public utilities exist in sectors such as related scientific and technical consulting services, research and development (R&D) services on social sciences and humanities, technical testing and analysis services, environmental services, health services, transport services, and services auxiliary to all modes of transport. Exclusive rights on such services are often granted to private operators, for instance operators with concessions from public authorities, subject to specific service obligations. Given that public utilities often also exist at the sub-central level, detailed and exhaustive sector-specific scheduling is not practical. This sub-entry (a) does not apply to telecommunications and to computer and related services. (b) Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment With respect to Investment – Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment and Cross-Border Trade in Services – Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment: According differential treatment pursuant to any international investment treaty or other trade agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

According differential treatment to a country pursuant to any existing or future bilateral or multilateral agreement which:

- (i) creates an internal market in services and investment;
- (ii) grants the right of establishment; or
- (iii) requires the approximation of legislation in one or more economic sectors.

An internal market on services and investment means an area without internal frontiers in which the free movement of services, capital, and persons is ensured.

The right of establishment means an obligation to abolish in substance all barriers to establishment among the parties to the regional economic integration agreement by the entry into force of that agreement. The right of establishment shall include the right of nationals of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement to set up and operate enterprises under the same conditions provided for nationals under the law of the country where such establishment takes place.

The approximation of legislation means:

- (i) the alignment of the legislation of one or more of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement with the legislation of the other party or parties to that agreement; or
- (ii) the incorporation of common legislation into the law of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement.

Such alignment or incorporation shall take place, and shall be deemed to have taken place, only at such time that it has been enacted in the law of the party or parties to the regional economic integration agreement.

According differential treatment relating to the right of establishment to nationals or enterprises through existing or future bilateral agreements between the UK and any of the following countries or principalities:

Andorra, Monaco, San Marino, and the Vatican City State.

According differential treatment to a third country pursuant to existing or future agreements relating to air services or to related services in support of air services.

(c) Arms, ammunitions, and war material

With respect to Investment – Market Access, National Treatment, Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment, Senior Management and Boards of Directors, Performance Requirements and Cross-Border Trade in Services – Market Access, National Treatment, Local Presence, Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment:

Production or distribution of, or trade in, arms, munitions, and war material. War material is limited to any product which is solely intended and made for military use in connection with the conduct of war or defence activities.

(d) Presence of natural persons

With respect to Cross-Border Trade in Services – Market Access:

The supply of a service by the presence of natural persons, subject to the provisions of Chapter 11 (Temporary Entry for Business Persons), that is not inconsistent with the United Kingdom's obligations under the GATS.
