Dear Dr Turner,

Ethics & Professional Accountability: Structural Challenges in the Audit, Assurance & Consultancy Industry

During our appearance on 22 February, we stated that there are '250,000 internal auditors across 200-plus countries that have voluntarily accepted a higher level of performance and accountability'. However, this should be '250,000 internal auditors across 100-plus countries that have voluntarily accepted a higher level of performance and accountability.'

Thank you for this opportunity to correct the record.

Yours sincerely,

Trish Hyde
