12. Sponsored Travel or Hospitality

Between Friday 7 November and Wednesday 19 November 2014 I attended the International Leaders Programme 2014 (ILP) as a guest of the Government of the United Kingdom through the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO).

The ILP is administered by the UK FCO as a programme designed to promote lasting partnerships with invited individuals from a range of countries with senior economic and political backgrounds. Participants travel to the United Kingdom and are accommodated as guests of the UK Government to allow them to attend a series of meetings and briefings regarding the UK Government and public policy initiatives. For the 2014 FCO ILP I travelled to the UK to attend a series of meetings and briefings between and including Sunday 9 November and Friday 14 November 2014. The meetings scheduled under the auspices of the ILP included briefings from senior British officials from the legal, public and not-for-profit sectors, as well as, briefings from senior members of the House of Commons and the House of Lords.

My business class return travel to the ILP was provided for by the UK FCO, as was accommodation for the period of the ILP. I was accompanied by my wife, Mrs Jennifer Porter, whose travel costs were privately funded but who also stayed in the relevant accommodation provided by the UK FCO.
