

Australian Senate

Corrigendum

Former Select Committee on the Recent Allegations relating to Conditions and Circumstances at the Regional Processing Centre in Nauru

Correction to Dissenting Report by Coalition Senators

Currently reads:

1.26 Other examples of witnesses to the inquiry who had either not spent long on Nauru, or did not have firsthand knowledge or had witnessed events prior to the present Government taking office in September 2013 included:

- Mr Tobias Gunn, who was on Nauru for less than one month and not during the periods he was testifying about.
- Professor David Isaacs, who states that he was on Nauru for a 'short time' and Ms Alanna Maycock, who was in Nauru for five days.

Amended to read:

1.26 Other examples of witnesses to the inquiry who had either not spent long on Nauru, or did not have firsthand knowledge or had witnessed events prior to the present Government taking office in September 2013 included:

- Professor David Isaacs, who states that he was on Nauru for a 'short time' and Ms Alanna Maycock, who was in Nauru for five days.

The Hon Senator David Johnston

Senator Linda Reynolds CSC