

Response to Senator Wish-Wilson's question to the Bureau of Meteorology about the current reading at the Cape Grim monitoring station:

The reading taken over the weekend is 404 parts per million.