

Stop messing with super.

Consider a fund's PDS and your objectives, financial situation and needs, which are not accounted for in this information before making an investment decision.