Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
0001	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Watt	Payments under the debris clean up-program	Senator WATT: Can you come back to us on notice and tell us how much has actually been paid by the Commonwealth, whether it be advance payments or after-the-event payments? Ms Bruinsma: Yes.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 41
0002	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Watt	Disaster Recovery Allowance rejected claims	Senator WATT: Do you have figures as to the number of people who have been rejected? Mr Colvin: For the DRP, we—when I say we I mean the Commonwealth, because this was obviously a Services Australia program—received 228,361 claims. There were 206,202 claims granted. That's for DRP. For the allowance, the DRA, 4,964 were received and 3,058 were granted. Senator WATT: I might get you to table any of those figures, if that's possible? Every afterwards is okay. Mr Colvin: Yes, okay.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 42
0003	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Watt	Criteria for determining New South Wales portion of economic recovery fund	Senator WATT: Okay. How was it determined that, of that $350 million, $270 million would go to New South Wales? That's obviously a very sizable proportion. Mr Colvin: It is, and I don't think it will surprise people that New South Wales suffered the largest impacts from the fires. Senator WATT: Yes. Mr Colvin: This was part of a very lengthy consultation process with all of the jurisdictions based on impact, and that's where that division landed, effectively. Senator WATT: Okay. Maybe you could come back to us on notice with any further criteria and—it's sounding like there was a percentage used—how that percentage was arrived at. Mr Colvin: Yes, there's a range of criteria for how we measured impact across local government areas. How impact is measured is not consistent across the country. Senator WATT: Yes.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 45
0004	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Watt	Economic recovery fund breakdown of state allocations, status of applications and project approvals	Senator WATT: In the interests of time, I might get you to come back on notice with how much has been allocated to each state, whether the applications have opened and closed and how many projects have been approved. Mr Colvin: We have all that, Senator. Senator WATT: That's probably as much as I need.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 47
0005	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Decision-maker for the Forestry Recovery Development Fund Program	Senator RICE: Okay. Who is the decision-maker for that program? Mr Colvin: That's a good question— Ms Bruinsma: That will be outlined in the guidelines. It would either be a departmental official or the minister, but it's not the agency. Mr Colvin: No, it's not us. We'll have to check—that's a good question. I can't recall off the top of my head what the guidelines say. We'll have to come back to you on notice with that.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 47-48
0006	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Final sign-off on the guidelines for the Forest Recovery Development Fund Program	Senator RICE: Could you take on notice who did the final sign-off on the guidelines? Mr Colvin: I think that the guidelines were negotiated with the department, and in consultation with the states and territories as well because, again, there is a range of forestry measures. Some are delivered by the Commonwealth and some are delivered in partnership with the states and territories. Senator RICE: Okay, so it was the department that did the final sign-off but you're saying that you had input into the guidelines. Could you take on notice what input you had? Were there emails of recommendations or any comments on the guidelines that the agency put forward on the basis of your consultations—in general? Mr Colvin: I understand. Senator RICE: But also on the strength of your consultation with the community. Mr Colvin: Yes, we can take that on notice—absolutely. 0007	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Community consultation documentation for the Forest Recovery Development Fund Program	Senator RICE: How has all of that consultation and the findings of those consultations been documented? Mr Colvin: Has it been documented? Senator RICE: Yes. Mr Colvin: We keep records within the agency of our engagements so that we have an up-to-date knowledge of what the community feedback is, and this is the type of material that we feed into the department, as the policy owners, when they're designing measures. Senator RICE: Could you take on notice to get me copies of that documentation, please—the feedback from the community? Mr Colvin: Certainly. As it relates to forestry industry, we can provide that to you.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 48
0008	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Distinction of plantation forestry and native forest logging in the guidelines for the Forest Recovery Development Fund Program	Senator RICE: Has there been consideration of the fact that the vast majority of the jobs in the industry in the south-eastern New South Wales region are actually plantation based forestry jobs rather than native forest jobs? Has that distinction been made? Mr Colvin: Again, I don't believe that that's something that has been communicated to me in such a distinct way, but it was quite obvious to me that most of the employment was as a result of softwood plantations, yes. Senator RICE: But there's nothing in the guidelines that distinguishes between plantation forestry and native forest logging, is there? Mr Colvin: I'd have to take that on notice. I don't have the guideline with me. Senator RICE: Alright, and if you could take on notice what your input into the guidelines was, thank you.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 49
0009	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Agreement with New South Wales in relation to the forestry transport assistance fund	Senator RICE: In relation to the $15 million for the forestry transport assistance, is there an agreement with New South Wales about this fund? Mr Colvin: Which one? Senator RICE: The forestry transport assistance. Mr Colvin: I'm pretty sure the answer to that question is actually: yes, there are agreements with New South Wales. In fact, I think the program is being delivered with matched funding from New South Wales. Senator RICE: Is that agreement a public agreement? Mr Colvin: I'd have to take that on notice. Senator RICE: If it's not, could I request a copy of that agreement, please? Mr Colvin: It's probably a question better directed at the Department of Agriculture, Water and the Environment, because we wouldn't be the decision-makers or owners of whether it's a public document or not.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 49
0010	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Rice	Differentiation between supporting the plantation sector and animals affected by bushfires	Senator RICE: Okay. My assessment from the Australian community is that the fate of our forests and the fact that we had three billion animals killed in the fires are things that the Australian community are very concerned about. Has that come through in your consultation with the community? Mr Colvin: Certainly, the community has been concerned about the environmental damage, including the loss of species. That is a constant that we have heard. In terms of the fires themselves, there's a concern about forestry management and managing the fires, and that has been a very emotional point from many of the communities I have been engaged with. But beyond that, as I said before, most of the discussions and the tenor of those discussions has been about the impact on the local communities of the hit that the forestry mills and the forestry workers and logging companies are taking. Senator RICE: But, again, most of the employment and the economic hit is in relation to plantation forests. What I want to know is—given that concern of the community about the animals that were killed and particularly that the vast majority of those animals were in our native forests—	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 50 whether you as an agency differentiate as to whether you saw fit, in terms of your statements, to differentiate between supporting the plantation sector and ongoing logging of our native forests and the animals that have been hit so hard by the fires. Mr Colvin: I'll take on notice what our feedback to the department has been, but I guess I'd just reinforce: we're not the policy owners or have the policy depth of this issue. We are communicating what we're hearing from the community.

0011	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Ayres	Approval of applications for the apple grower grants	Senator AYRES: Sorry, Mr Colvin—back to apples again. When will we know how many applications have been received? When do these application processes that were announced four months ago conclude? Mr Colvin: Applications close in Queensland and South Australia on 31 December and in New South Wales on 15 December. So the program is quite open and active at the moment. Senator AYRES: And are applications being approved after the application date closes, or are they being dealt with and approved as they come in? Mr Colvin: I'd have to defer to the department for that.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 53
0012	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	National Bushfire Recovery Agency	Ayres	National Bushfire Recovery Agency organisational chart	Senator AYRES: Is the agency able to provide an up-to-date organisational chart? Mr Colvin: Certainly. Ms Bruinsma: I don't have one with me, but, yes, we can provide it after.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 55
0013	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Advice provided by Office for Women following the government's decision on early access to super	Senator McALLISTER: Treasury told the COVID-19 committee that they did not do any analysis of the impact of the early access to super scheme on women. This is despite the fact that women retire with around half the superannuation balances as men, on average. Did the Office for Women model the impact of that scheme on women, or do any analysis of that scheme on women, or did they ask Treasury to do so? Ms Hawkins: In terms of the government's decision on early access to super, as you know from our answer to the previous committee—the COVID committee—we didn't advise on that prior to the government making a decision. In terms of after that decision, we have been involved in briefings on that issue. We have not done modelling as such, but we have been involved in giving advice subsequently on that. Senator McALLISTER: So after the decision was made, somebody sought your advice? Ms Hawkins: After the decision was made we had a look at it and provided some advice on it. Senator McALLISTER: To whom? Ms Hawkins: In the normal course of events, we advise the Minister for Women in various briefings. We've given her advice on it. Senator McALLISTER: Just to the Minister for Women? Ms Hawkins: I'd have to take on notice anything beyond that. Senator McALLISTER: Why? Can you not remember? Ms Hawkins: We do look at a very large number of things. I have got in front of me that we didn't give advice before the decision was made. I know that we did give advice after the decision was made. I know that in the general course of briefings that we provide the minister that we did provide advice on that after the event. Anything further I'd need to take on notice.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 59-60
0014	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Tabling of the Women's Economic Security Statement	Senator McALLISTER: I want to ask you about the women's economic security package. Why was the Women's Economic Security Statement not handed out with the budget papers in the media lock-up, or tabled in parliament on budget day? Senator Payne: With the Women's Economic Security Statement, to the best of my recollection—and I stand to be corrected; obviously this was not my portfolio responsibility at the time—I don't recall if the 2018 Women's Economic Security Statement was tabled in parliament as a formal document or not. I will check on that. Senator McALLISTER: I'm asking about the one that was issued just a couple of weeks ago.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 61

					Senator Payne: I understand that, but I'm saying that I think it was treated in a similar way to the 2018 statement. I will check on that, and, if I'm wrong, I'll correct the record.
0015	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Decision making regarding the delivery of the Women's Economic Security Statement	Senator McALLISTER: I see. When was it decided that the Women's Economic Security Statement would be delivered with the budget, Minister? Senator Payne: I don't recall the precise date, Senator. I'll take that on notice and return to the committee.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 62
0016	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Award grant to Council of Small Business Organisations of Australia (COSBOA)	Senator McALLISTER: I want to ask about one particular grant that was approved on 5 April 2019, just a couple of days before the federal election was called. It is a $2.2 million grant to COSBOA. What was the purpose of that grant? Ms Hawkins: Again, we do have so many grants. Could you give us a little bit more information? It predated us being in the roles. Can you give us a bit more information about which one it is? Senator McALLISTER: I'm going with the material that's on the internet. It is under the women's projects grants. It's a Women's Leadership and Development grant. It relates to output 1.1. It was provided to COSBOA, which is the Council of Small Business Organisations Australia. It was valued at $2.2 million. The approval date was 5 April 2019. Ms Thomas: That was actually a 2018 Women's Economic Security Statement measure. It was referred to in the statement at the time as the Future Female Entrepreneurs Program. It has subsequently had a name change and it is referred to as the Academy for Enterprising Girls. That's what that grant refers to. Senator McALLISTER: And why was it awarded on the eve of the election? Ms Thomas: I would have to go back and check, but my understanding is that it would have been a case of needing the grant to be established in order for it to be executed, but it was certainly a women's economic security 2018 measure.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 68
0017	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Publication of grant to the Council of Small Business Organisations of Australia (COSBOA) on GrantConnect	Senator McALLISTER: According the Commonwealth Grants Rules and Guidelines, grant awards need to be published on GrantConnect within 21 days of a grant agreement taking effect. That's correct? Ms Thomas: That's correct. Senator McALLISTER: Why was this grant to COSBOA published over a year later, on 7 September 2020? Ms Thomas: I would have to take that on notice, Senator. Senator McALLISTER: Is it correct—I mean, that's the publication date on the online database. Is it correct that that was the date it was published? Ms Frame: None of us here at the table were actually in the office at the time. So, if you will allow us, we'll take it on notice and get back to you with the specific information that you're seeking.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 68
0018	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Action taken as a result of delay between allocation and publication of grant to the Council of Small Business Organisations of Australia (COSBOA)	Senator McALLISTER: I'd like to know if any action has been taken as a result of such an extended delay between allocation of the grant and publication of the information— Ms Frame: That's additional question on notice. Senator McALLISTER: It is an additional question. Ms Frame: No problem, thank you.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 69
0019	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Funding allocation to recipients for grant that refers to the Academy for Enterprising Girls	Senator McALLISTER: What's the percentage of funding that COSBOA receives under the grant program? Ms Hawkins: Senator, we'd have to take that on notice. Senator McALLISTER: How does it compare to other recipients? Ms Hawkins: I really would have to take it on notice. 0020	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	McAllister	Evaluation framework and performance metrics provided to the Academy for Enterprising Girls	Senator McALLISTER: Has an evaluation framework for this particular program been established? Ms Thomas: I believe it has, however I'll take that on notice just to 100 per cent confirm it. I believe that is worked into the funding agreement. Senator McALLISTER: Can you please table the evaluation framework for this program? Can you also please table the specific performance metrics that are attached to both the first and the second grant that's been provided to the Academy for Enterprising Girls? Ms Thomas: Certainly, we'll take that on notice, Senator.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 69
0021	Workplace Gender Equality Agency		McAllister	She's Price(d)less report	Senator McALLISTER: Ms Lyons, I want to ask you about She's Price(d)less. It's a document that I've used a lot over my time in the parliament. I find it very valuable, and you must be very proud of WGEA's contribution to the latest version. In your foreword you say that you hope that the insights and recommendations will play a valuable part in driving the impetus for change and that our children deserve nothing less. I want to talk to you about some of the aspects in the executive summary and the main report. Do you have a copy of that report? Ms Lyons: I don't have it in front of me, but perhaps one of my team who is online can email me a copy so I can have it on my screen. Senator McALLISTER: If it's of any assistance, I was hoping to go to page 13 of the short report. Ms Lyons: I will also put Janin Bredehoeft on notice, because she was very involved in the work that was done with She's Price(d)less, so she may be able to help. Senator McALLISTER: The report is organised by looking at the underlying drivers of the pay gap, and on page 13 it looks at the primary underlying driver associated with care, responsibilities and workforce participation, and it suggests that 39 per cent of the gender pay gap is due to these factors. There is a list of ideas here, or policy solutions, that would effect change. They include improving work-life balance, increasing the availability of flexible work, increasing the availability of child care or decreasing its cost, enhancing the availability and uptake of shared parental care, and reducing disincentives to participation through changes to tax, family payment and childcare support systems. Are you aware of any of those solutions being included in the budget this year? Ms Lyons: I think there are a number of initiatives in the budget that look to some of these issues, but if you're talking specifically to those, then there are no specific actions, to my knowledge. Senator McALLISTER: That would be good. I think it would be useful for you to, maybe, reflect on it and provide on notice whether there are any of these opportunities to effect change in the new budget initiatives for this year.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 70
0022	Workplace Gender Equality Agency		Waters	Findings from 2019-20 Workplace Gender Equality Agency report – compliance rate	Senator WATERS: I was going to ask you about the compliance rate, so thanks for mentioning that it's 98 per cent. How many actual companies does that represent that failed to meet their reporting requirements? Ms Lyons: There are a number. Just because an employer doesn't put their report in by the date that we require doesn't mean that they don't become compliant as they put a report in, so the number changes every day. Currently, I think 145 organisations are noncompliant. Sydney office, could you confirm that number, please? Do you have it in front of you? Ms Beath: Yes, that's correct. Ms Lyons: So 145 currently are noncompliant. Senator WATERS: Did you write to any of those companies saying that you intended to publish their name on the noncompliant list; and, of those written to, did any then hastily pull their socks up so that they could avoid such a public naming? Ms Lyons: We write to every organisation that has a report outstanding to us on a regular basis and at regular intervals. That is specified under the act, so it happens every year. Generally speaking, most employers are very proactive once the CEO receives such a letter. Unfortunately, many of those that are noncompliant at the moment are what we would call serial noncompliant	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 72 organisations so they've have been noncompliant for a number of years. Despite all our efforts, they're not interested in complying with the act. Senator WATERS: Could I ask on notice for you to provide us with a list of those long-term noncompliant folks?

0023	Workplace Gender Equality Agency		Waters	Consultation with Workplace Gender Equality Agency (WEGA) in relation to companies that fail to comply with WEGA reporting requirements	Senator WATERS: Lastly, on that point, is WGEA consulted by government when government plans a tender or a contract to a company that has failed to comply with WGEA reporting requirements? Has government come to you actively and discussed the matter? Ms Lyons: Not to me personally. Senator WATERS: To the agency? Ms Lyons: I wouldn't have thought so, Senator. I do know that in my situation the tender documents have a check box that says, 'Are you compliant with the Workplace Gender Equality Act?' Ms Beath, did you have anything to add to that? Ms Beath: As part of the process, [inaudible]. Senator WATERS: Sorry to interrupt you, but I'm afraid we're not hearing your audio in an audible way. I'm sorry about that. Would you mind popping that in writing and sending that to us? We're hearing Ms Lyons quite clearly, but I just didn't catch that last contribution. So if you wouldn't mind popping that in on notice, that would be great.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 72
0024	National Drought and North Queensland Flood Response and Recovery Agency		Ayres	The Government's work plan to respond to the review of the Australian government's drought response	Senator AYRES: ... My first question is for the minister. Mr Stone's evaluation or review of the Australian government's drought response identified six themes of shortcomings. He said that the governance and delivery arrangements in the drought support landscape are complex; eligibility is complex and inconsistent; the provision of some support during drought is reactive; communication and how to access support are unclear; there have been limited review and evaluation of programs; and data is not centralised or coordinated. To be fair to Mr Stone, I don't want to shop him completely. His report about the government's drought response is not all negative, but he does make those criticisms. What is the government's work plan to respond to those criticisms? Senator Seselja: There's a number of things. I might take some of the detail on notice. But, certainly, the government is aware that as a nation we haven't always gotten these things right, and we are always looking to improve. One of the things that we have been doing is having people like Shane Stone assist with our response. There obviously have been a number of reviews, and they demonstrate, as well, the significant contribution made by the Australian government to drought impacted farmers, communities and regional businesses, but also demonstrate the government's willingness to learn from past experience and to deliver better assistance measures in the future. A number of proposals have been put out. Obviously, we respond to those and the ministers responsible respond in more detail on that. I can ask officials if they want to add anything to that. But we do take these things very seriously and we are working to improve.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 75
0025	National Drought and North Queensland Flood Response and Recovery Agency		Ayres	Proposals following review of the Australian government's drought response	Senator AYRES: You said that there's a number of proposals. Can you, I suspect on notice, outline what those are and what the government's response to those is? Senator Seselja: I'm very happy to take those on notice.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 75
0026	National Drought and North Queensland Flood Response and Recovery Agency		Ayres	Response to six themes identified in the Australian government's drought response	Senator AYRES: Mr Stone, some of these matters are matters for government and some of them are, as I understand it, issues that the agency itself is engaged in working with—the governance and delivery arrangements for drought support, and the complexity of those, rationalising and consolidating drought measures. Is there a timetable for the agency to develop an approach to those questions? Mr Stone: Let me first put it in context. As the lockdown came into play, we looked around at what we might do, usefully, given that we were constrained in our activities around Australia. I instructed my officers that I wanted a forensic examination of every drought measure that was in	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 75-76

					play. These drought measures cut across both sides of politics. As you would suspect, they have come through the system over time. ... You are already seeing various changes as things are fine-tuned. I'll give you an example. The Rural Financial Counselling Service, which I think goes back to 1985, was a case of set and forget. We have worked very closely with them to say, 'You are critical to the recovery of people, whether they are in bushfires, droughts or floods. What can we do to strengthen your service? What can we do to better support you?' Although they are administered within the Department of the Agriculture, Water and the Environment, the fact is that we now work collaboratively with that department to make sure that we have a better resourced and better and more effective counselling service that is in play. That is just one example. Senator AYRES: I am interested in it because I accept your point that there is a range of governments and a history to this, but it is a pretty useful assessment of some of the shortcomings in drought support delivery. Minister, to be clear, I'd like to see, on notice, a response to each of those six line items, the six themes, that Mr Stone has identified. Senator Seselja: That is fine.
0027	National Drought and North Queensland Flood Response and Recovery Agency		Ayres	Realm of agency's control with response to six themes identified in the Australian government's drought response	Mr Padovan: ...With those six criteria, we are not developing a plan about the plan. The work to address those is already under way. On the issue of eligibility, for example, we are working across government to come up with a standardised set of eligibility criteria. Over time, different criteria for different programs have emerged. We are trying to standardise that at the Commonwealth level. By late this year, early next year, we expect to— Senator AYRES: You have talked yourself into some homework as well. I want something from you, Minister, and I want something from the agency about what is in the agency's control with those questions.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 76

That would be great. And on the qualitative data that you mentioned—because it's been one of the big questions for all employers, public sector or private sector—what's the impact on motivation of employees, on their engagement with their work, on their collegiality with each other and on collaboration? From your brief synopsis it sounds like largely that data is positive. Is that a fair summary? Ms Purcell: Yes, very much so. There are five questions that we can benchmark against last year's employee census around employee engagement—how strongly people feel committed to agency goals, whether they feel inspired to do their best work, effective internal communication. For internal communication, there was a 19 per cent increase from the year prior. Similarly, in terms of feeling inspired to do new or better things, there was a 17 per cent increase. Over those few months when the surveys were conducted, that was significant. We are also rolling out the APS employee	Hansard, 19 October 2020, pages 88-89

0033	Australian Public Service Commission		Gallagher	Office of the Merit Protection Commissioner annual report	Senator GALLAGHER: Thank you. I do think it works into your capability program as well, because I think it probably impacts that. If you're hiring temporary people on contracts to do work that is ongoing at the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission, it would certainly impact their capability. If you're just buying in people via labour hire to do permanent jobs, which it appears is being done, I think it also works into your diversity strategy and a whole range of other things too. I only got your annual report this morning, Ms Wiley-Smith, but I couldn't leave you without asking a question! What's going on at the tax office? You made comment: ... we had a 293 per cent increase in applications compared to the same period ... This is talking about reviews of employment actions. It goes on. You talk about the impact on your work. You say that the tax office funded a position to help you to deal with this. When you look at the breakdown, they're the stand-out in terms of review of a promotion decision. Of the 1,590 applications, 988 came from the tax office. I know they're big, but what's going on? Ms Wiley-Smith: I'm sorry to disappoint you; I believe the part of the report that you're looking at relates to the Merit Protection Commission. So it's the commissioner's report, not ours. Senator GALLAGHER: Right—they don't appear. Sorry, I thought you would— Mr Woolcott: They can appear, but Ms Waugh, who is the Merit Protection Commissioner— Senator GALLAGHER: Sorry. My apologies, Ms Wiley-Smith. Mr Woolcott: is based in Sydney. Ms Wiley-Smith: I was excited about getting a question. Senator GALLAGHER: Yes, damn! So can anyone answer that? Mr Woolcott: Can we take that on notice? 0038	Office of National Intelligence		Wong	Office of National Intelligence (ONI) secondees in the secretariat	Senator WONG: Okay. Did you have any ONI secondees in the secretariat for the duration of the review by Mr Richardson? Ms Littlehales: We did for a period. Senator WONG: For a period? Ms Littlehales: I'd have to get the exact time frame. Senator WONG: I'm having a little trouble understanding what happened with the secretariat here. We have a very experienced former public servant undertaking a review. Presumably AGS or Attorney-General's had a fair bit of engagement in it, but presumably you would have wanted the secretariat for a review like this to pull in people from different backgrounds and with different experience within the intelligence community. Did that happen? Ms Littlehales: To my knowledge, yes, it did. Senator WONG: Why were you only there for a short period, then? Ms Littlehales: No, we had different people going in and out during the period. I can't remember exactly how many people we had going over. I can definitely take that on notice. Senator WONG: Sure. Why don't you do that? Can you give me the detail of the different people going in and out, but I'm also interested in why that happened. Mr Warner: Sure, we can do that.	Hansard, 19 October 2020, page 99
0039	Australian National Audit Office		Patrick	Re-examination of valuation	Mr White: And that range is directly correlated to the analysed sales in the tables on the previous pages, which lead to the discussion that also talks about how the absolute minimum price that would be expected—for the last historic sale, of $2,300—would be higher in a future period of time. So reading the report and analysing the tables of sales and the expectation of a premium was what we read the report to be saying. Senator PATRICK: I wonder if you could re-examine that. At the end of the day, when you get a valuation on a house or on anything, there are a whole range of things that might be talked about. Then, the valuer presents his or her findings. In this instance, it's really clear what the range is. I wonder if you could perhaps re-examine that and come back on notice as to whether or not you think an error has been made in the way in which this has been read? 0040	Australian National Audit Office		Patrick	Valuation methodology	Senator PATRICK: When you looked at the purchase, DAWR had used a desktop valuation that related to Murrumbidgee supplementary licences; that's how it came to the conclusion that it was paying the right price. However, under the water-sharing plans you're not allowed to transfer water from the Murrumbidgee to the Lowbidgee area. I'm just wondering why you accepted the valuation methodology of the department, taking valuations from one valley and using them in another? Mr White: I'd have to take that on notice, Senator. How did you become conscious of that? Ms Foster: There were a number of discussions and phone calls between various groups of people. We provided— Senator WATERS: How did you select which ones to advise the government invest public money in? Mr Power: That's not how we operate. We don't advise the government to invest specifically in any area. We provide feedback on how businesses are operating, what they're doing to respond to the coronavirus, what the issues are around continuing to operate and continuing to employ people, and what impact of any measures that the government's taken has had on those businesses. So we don't select those areas. Senator WATERS: So you haven't recommended that any particular sector or even any particular project, for that matter, be invested in? Mr Power: No, we haven't. Senator Cormann: It doesn't work that way at all. Senator WATERS: Okay. 					Senator WONG: Okay. While this committee is still proceeding today I would like a list of the engagements that the secretary has had with other secretaries and other heads of agencies, including the APSC, in relation to Leppington Triangle. Mr Duggan: I'll take that on notice and we'll endeavour to get back to you in the course of events today. Senator WONG: Yes, I hope so. This is a matter which has been put to the AFP because the Audit Office could not rule out the possibility of criminal activity and the defrauding of the Commonwealth. It's been pursued extensively. Mr Gaetjens is the head of the Public Service; I expect, and the committee would expect, him to be able, through you, to provide answers as to his engagement on this. So I'd like a chronology of this engagement, please. Mr Duggan: We'll get that for you during the course of events. Senator WONG: Can someone give me an indication of how long that will take? Mr Duggan: I'd imagine that Mr Gaetjen's officers are viewing this as we speak, so they will have started pulling that together for you.

First, you turn up without the capacity to answer questions about Mr Gaetjens' involvement and want to take it on notice. You then give the committee an incorrect date about a material fact—the date the Prime Minister's department was informed about the referral to the AFP. And you're not able to answer detailed questions about that or subsequent engagement on it because you took no notes. I think the Prime Minister's department ought come a little more professionally prepared. So what happens after that advice? What action was taken, if any? What happened after 20 September? Mr Duggan: We've continued to engage— Senator WONG: With whom? Mr Duggan: With the Prime Minister's office to keep them informed, as we've become aware of issues as they have arisen. Senator WONG: Who is the person? 0058	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	Siewert	Provision of Advice by the Australian Health Protection Principal Committee to National Cabinet	Senator SIEWERT: It seems to me that the provisions of cabinet have been applying to all of the COVID advice. Has there been a decision taken that— Ms Foster: Senator, I was just very explicit about where it applies in relation to AHPPC, and it's where it is directly tasked by national cabinet or where it's preparing material for consideration of national cabinet. Senator SIEWERT: That's where I was going. I heard what you said, which is why I was going to COVID-19, because it seems to me that provision of information on COVID-19 has not been available, for example, to the COVID committee. So my question is: is anything to do with the advice provided by them on COVID-19 now considered cabinet advice? Ms Foster: Only in the circumstances that I've just specified. Senator SIEWERT: How many times, then, has that been applied to anything that relates to their advice on COVID-19? Ms Foster: I would have to take that level of detail on notice unless one of my colleagues can help me. Senator SIEWERT: Can anybody help? Ms Foster: I think the fact that no-one's appearing means no. We'll take it on notice. Senator SIEWERT: Okay. Can you take that on notice, please..	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 39
0059	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Wong	Date the Department of the Prime Minister & Cabinet Deputy Secretaries became aware of the content of the Australian National Audit Office report and learned of the Australian Federal Police referral	Senator WONG: We've had a lot of evidence about dates. I think it's a little confusing. Can I suggest we do this: there's the subsequent evidence from your group, Mr Duggan, about engagement with the PM's office after, but I actually just want to make sure we are really clear about the dates on which three officers from Prime Minister and cabinet became (a) aware of the content of the audit report and (b) learned of the AFP referral. Those officers are Mr Gaetjens, Ms Foster and yourself, Mr Duggan. Do you think after lunch we could just maybe table that or just make a statement about those three? The two things I want to know are: when did the following officers (a) learn of the contents of the audit report and (b) learn of the AFP referral? Gaetjens, Foster and Duggan. Ms Foster: I can give you two of those dates now. Both Mr Gaetjens and I learnt of the content of the report when the embargoed report was delivered, which was on the 17th. Senator WONG: And the AFP referral? Ms Foster: The AFP referral we'll have to find out. I think Mr Duggan has indicated that he told Mr Gaetjens. We'll find out as precisely as we can. Senator WONG: Okay. They're the two pieces of information. In addition, we're looking at what advice has been provided to the Prime Minister's office which you've commissioned.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 41
0060	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	Integrity commission legislation interdepartmental working group meeting details	Senator WONG: Given this and a whole range of other matters, the government's commitment to legislate an integrity commission becomes even more relevant. Some eight months ago, Mr Porter told the parliament that the government's national integrity commission legislation was 'very well advanced' and ran to 350 pages. Has anyone from PM&amp;C seen this 350 pages of legislation? Mr Reid: Was the question: have we seen the draft legislation? Senator WONG: Yes.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 42-44

					Mr Reid: Yes, we have. Senator WONG: Was an interdepartmental body—an IDC or equivalent—formed to do the work on an integrity commission? Mr Reid: I can't now recall what it was called. There was certainly a lot of interagency and interdepartmental work on that project. Senator WONG: I'm sorry; I was distracted. Could you answer that again. Mr Reid: I can't recall what it was called or whether it was formally titled an IDC or anything like that, but there was a lot of interdepartmental work, including with PM&amp;C. Senator WONG: Can you tell me who was involved in this body that doesn't have a name? Shall we call it a working group? I just want to reference the collective. What would you like me to use? Mr Reid: I certainly think there were a series of interdepartmental meetings. Senator WONG: Okay. Not just bilateral but a group coming together from various portfolios? Mr Reid: I would have to take on notice who and when. Senator WONG: Okay. Approximately when? Mr Reid: Through 2019. Senator WONG: So that's post the election, presumably, in 2019—or pre as well? Mr Reid: Again, I'd need to take that on notice. I don't have in my papers dates of when various meetings were held in the development of the legislation. Senator WONG: Were you the officer from PM&amp;C who had primary carriage of it? Mr Reid: Certainly my division, yes. Senator WONG: Again, people can't tell me. On this, I'm not actually going to ask you for precise dates; perhaps on notice you can do that. I'm just trying to get a sense of how long this has been going. Is it your evidence that this interdepartmental process commenced prior to the 2019 election? [...] Senator WONG: Okay. Can we just go back to the process. This process of interdepartmental meetings which occurred last year resulted in legislation being drafted—correct? Mr Reid: Initially they resulted in the discussion paper which was released in December 2018 by the Attorney-General. Senator WONG: So these meetings must have occurred in 2018. Mr Reid: Yes. Senator WONG: So we've been going for a couple of years now. Mr Reid: Since the announcement by the government, yes. Senator WONG: When was that again? It's hard to remember, isn't it? It's so long ago! Mr Reid: I don't have a date here. The Attorney-General's Department obviously have been running this matter since then. They'd have the detail on dates and specifics. Senator WONG: Please don't try and do that to me. You're PM&amp;C. I can ask questions about your involvement, okay? So was it sometime in 2018 that the government made their announcement? Ms Foster: We'll follow up and get the dates. [...] Senator WONG: Okay. Can you provide me on notice with not only the dates of the meetings but also information on this task force or working group—who it was chaired by, what the membership is and how often it's met? Mr Reid: It was certainly led by the Attorney-General's Department. Senator WONG: Yes. I'd like to know when you attended, then. You must know. Mr Reid: Sorry, Senator? Senator WONG: I'd like to know the meetings and when you attended and so forth. Mr Reid: Certainly.

Has anything happened since you saw that? Mr Reid: I'd have to check the last time we provided any comments on a draft bill or draft legislation. Senator WONG: Okay. Can you do that? Mr Reid: Yes. Senator WONG: Later today? Mr Reid: Yes.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 45
0064	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	National integrity commission legislation introduction	Senator WONG: .... Will legislation introducing a national integrity commission be introduced this year? Senator Cormann: I'm happy to take on notice whether I can be more helpful and indicate a specific timetable, but, of course, the final endorsement of any final proposal is subject to the deliberation of cabinet at the appropriate time on the recommendation of the Attorney-General. When the government is in a position to make a final decision, then that will be part of the relevant announcement arrangements at the time.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 45

0066	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	The Department of the Prime Minister & Cabinet staff interviewed investigations into Assistant Minister Sukkar	Senator WONG: Right. I'm just confirming—I think this is right—that the Prime Minister has not asked the secretary of PM&amp;C to conduct any investigation into or consideration of whether there's been a breach of the ministerial standards by Michael Sukkar. Ms Foster: That's correct. Senator WONG: Was anyone from PM&amp;C interviewed in the conduct of these investigations? Ms Foster: Not to my knowledge, and I think I would know if they had been. Senator WONG: You'll confirm that on notice, then? Ms Foster: Sure.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 48
0067	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Wong	Prime Minister's Office staff interviewed investigations into Assistant Minister Sukkar	Senator WONG: Or you'll correct that, if that's incorrect. In the conduct of the Department of Finance investigations, was anyone from the Prime Minister's office interviewed? Ms Foster: I don't know. Senator WONG: Senator Cormann? Senator Cormann: I'm not aware, and I don't know why they would have been, but I'm happy to take it on notice.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 48

					Senator WONG: Thank you. Senator Cormann: But I'm happy to take it on notice if you want to get further information on that. Senator WONG: Thank you.
0069	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	SPD	Rice	Letter from Former Minister McKenzie to the Prime Minister	Ms Foster: I'm speaking on the secretary's behalf also. There was a letter that former Minister McKenzie wrote to the Prime Minister in late 2018 after that meeting seeking an expansion of funding for the Community Sport Infrastructure Grant Program. Were the department and the secretary aware of that letter before the Gaetjens inquiry? Ms Foster: I don't believe so but I'd need to check that to make sure that the answer is accurate. Senator RICE: Why do you feel that you don't believe so, then? Ms Foster: Because, until Mr Gaetjens was asked by the Prime Minister to inquire into whether or not there was a potential breach of the ministerial standards, we had not had involvement with the sports grant program. It was being run in a different portfolio with no reference to us. So I can't imagine how we would have had access to that. But, being unable to confirm that absolutely, I'd like to double-check. Senator RICE: Okay. There was a further letter after the meeting between minister McKenzie and the Prime Minister on 10 December confirming that the meeting had taken place, extra funding was being provided and it was going to be a $100 million program. Was the department aware of that letter? Ms Foster: No. I'd like to go back to your earlier question. I was correct to say that we received the adviser spreadsheet and the accompanying four-page document on 30 January, but in fact I was just testing my memory. I believe that former Minister McKenzie's chief of staff at the time that we were doing the inquiry had forwarded us that document a couple of days earlier. I'm just having my staff check that and we'll come back and confirm that with you. We were asking him about those issues in the report. He had been able to identify, from memory, the document but not the attached spreadsheet. So it's possible that we had the document a few days before the date I've given you, and I'll confirm that as soon as I can.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 50-51
0070	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Waters	Frontline domestic violence prevention and response services request for funding	Senator WATERS: There were various representations made by women's safety organisations—AWAVA, Harmony Alliance, the Economic Security for Women Group. They all requested $1 billion per year for 12 years for frontline domestic violence prevention and response services, as well as investment in childcare and the care economy. Why was all of that advice ignored? Ms Frame: I'm not aware that that advice was received. I can get you more information on that, but I'm not aware that the Office for Women was specifically cognisant of that request around the billion dollars. But I'll take that on notice. I would point out that the government committed $150 million to women's safety and domestic violence services as part of the COVID response, all of which has been allocated.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 56
0071	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Wong	Leppington Triangle documents	Mr Duggan: On 17 September, the secretary of Prime Minister and Cabinet received an email from the Auditor-General with an embargoed copy of the Auditor-General's report. Also on 18 September, as I mentioned previously, PM&amp;C provided preliminary advice both to Secretary Gaetjens, and also the PMO's infrastructure adviser, on the embargoed copy of the report. Senator WONG: This was the preliminary advice you told me about earlier?	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 57-58

					Mr Duggan: That's correct. Senator WONG: But that was in writing now, you tell me? I thought the preliminary advice was oral and then the email advice was on the 20th. Mr Duggan: That's correct. On the 18th it was an email to the secretary's office, but a phone call to the PMO adviser. Senator WONG: From? Mr Duggan: The senior adviser—so, executive level 2—in the infrastructure department to the Prime Minister's office's adviser. Ms Foster: The senior adviser is one of our officers—our EL2s are known locally as senior advisers. Senator WONG: But it wasn't in the infrastructure department; it was in PM&amp;C. Mr Duggan: It was in PM&amp;C. That's correct, yes. Senator WONG: And to the PMO. Mr Duggan: To the PMO. Senator WONG: So the preliminary advice on the 18th was actually in writing as well? Mr Duggan: The preliminary advice to the secretary of PM&amp;C was in writing. That was an email. But the preliminary advice to the PMO was a phone call. Senator WONG: To? Mr Duggan: To the Prime Minister's infrastructure adviser. Senator WONG: Is this the same person who came up with the colour-coded spreadsheet in the sports rorts matter? Mr Duggan: I have no visibility of that issue. The next date then is 20 September, when written advice was provided both to the secretary's office and to the relevant PMO adviser. At that time, copied or attached to that written advice were the talking points prepared by the infrastructure department on their response. Also on 20 September, we updated what we call a 'live issues brief', which colloquially is known as a question time brief, for the Prime Minister. The next relevant date— Senator WONG: Where were they prepped? Those were prepared by PM&amp;C? Mr Duggan: Prepared by the department. Senator WONG: Do you have visibility, or were there any drafting changes with the PMO? Mr Duggan: Not to my knowledge. The information I have from my team is that we simply provided points. Senator WONG: Is the practice usually that if there's any additional advice from the Prime Minister's advisers—does that come back to the department for integration into that, or is that a separate brief? Ms Foster: I'll get Mr Martin to help me if I'm wrong, but I think that that's integrated into the one system. So we load the brief into the system, and I think that it can then be adapted within that system. Senator WONG: Do you have visibility, then, of any amendments that the PMO make? Ms Foster: I think yes, but I'll get— Senator WONG: I'm going to ask for all the documents that you've referenced—if you can take on notice the provision of all of them. You'll have to make decisions about which you give me and which bits you give me, and then we can have another argument about that—so we can both look forward to that! But, in respect of this one, my additional request is to ask for any variations to the document that was drafted on 20 September. Mr Duggan: I'll take that on notice.

0080	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	MSD	Wong	Prime Minister's speech on the apology to the survivors of institutional child abuse	Senator WONG: That's right. One other issue that I understand is also on the public record which I was not aware of is there have been reports about some wording used in the Prime Minister's speech on the apology to the survivors of institutional child abuse. Do you have any knowledge of these reports?  Ms Foster: I don't but I will ask our social policy colleagues if they have any knowledge. If anyone does, if they would like to come to the table.  Senator WONG: There is an allegation that there were changes to the speech, including—and this seems far-fetched, but I think it would be useful to put it to you to make sure it is refuted—that these close associates urges a change to the Prime Minister's speech to use a different word, the word being 'ritual'. I'm asking: can we use this opportunity to make clear that is not case?  Ms Foster: I don't know. I have just asked all of my staff openly if anyone has any information. 0081	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Ayres	Minister Tudge allegations of criminal conduct – the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet awareness	Senator AYRES: I want to ask some questions about the response of the department to findings in relation to Minister Tudge's criminal conduct. On 23 September this year, Justice Flick of the Federal Court said this about Minister Tudge, who was the acting Minister for Immigration: 'The minister has acted unlawfully.' Justice Flick said the minister's actions had unlawfully deprived a person of his liberty and that 'his conduct exposes him to both civil and potentially criminal sanctions not limited to a proceeding for contempt. ... In the absence of explanation, the minister has engaged in conduct which can only be described as criminal.' When and how did the department become aware of the judgement?  ...  Senator AYRES: The judge, Justice Flick, said 'The minister has engaged in conduct which can only be described as criminal'. When and how did this department become aware of that judgement?  Ms Foster: My understanding is we became aware of the judgement when it became public, but my staff are checking to make sure. Because there are different parts of the department, some which deal with ministerial issues and others which deal with international and security issues, we are checking to see if any part of the department knew in advance of it being public.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 77

0083	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Ayres	Payment of Minister Tudge's legal costs	Senator AYRES: Senator Cormann, are taxpayers meeting Mr Tudge's legal costs? Senator Cormann: I'd have to take that on notice. The arrangements here are the same arrangements that are in place and are always in place under governments of both political persuasions. Clearly if ministers are parties in legal proceedings in the course of their duties then, on the same basis as was the case for previous governments, including the previous Labor government, of course the usual support is provided. But in terms of the specifics in this context, I'd have to take that on notice.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 78

0085	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Utilisation rate of flights since 4 July	Senator WONG: I am interested in a document or evidence which shows me what the cap was and the number of places that were utilised within the cap for each particular time period since they were put in place. Do you have that? In other words, do you report this weekly? I assume it's done by week. Ms Frame: Yes, we do. Senator WONG: And the cap was introduced on 13 or 14 July? Ms Frame: That's correct—4 July. Senator WONG: From that week, do you have the information which shows what the cap was at each of the jurisdictions and how many places were utilised? Ms Frame: We can get that information. I know we produced that information last week and shared it with the Queensland government. It was information that we specifically brought together in order to assure ourselves around the utilisation of the caps. Senator WONG: So you have looked at utilisation rates? Ms Frame: Yes. Senator WONG: What has been the utilisation rate since 4 July? Ms Frame: I would need to get you the exact information, Senator, but I can say it's been very high, with regard to the caps. The information we were looking at last week indicated that it was typically between, I think, about 95 per cent and, sometimes, 102 per cent. It did drop to, I think, about 75—I can confirm these figures for you, Senator—when the caps increased. What we ascertained was that, when there was the jump in the cap—	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 82
0086	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Facilitated flights for returning Australians	Senator WONG: And how many facilitated commercial flights have been organised? Ms Frame: I'd need to get those exact numbers from DFAT. I know the first one is scheduled to arrive at Howard Springs on 23 October.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 84
0087	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Number of Australians home by Christmas	Senator WONG: So you have modelled what it would take to get most of those 33,000 Australians home by Christmas? Ms Frame: As I said, Senator, when we did that modelling, it was based on 26,800. Senator WONG: Yes. Ms Frame: I need to check the exact number, but that was the point in time at which we did that modelling. Senator WONG: How many per week would you have to bring home? Ms Frame: I will need to confirm that number. Do you have any more detail on that? Ms Spencer: No, I don't. Ms Frame: But we can get that number to you, Senator.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 85
0088	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Repatriation	Senator WONG: I just want to know—and so do they—at the moment the numbers are going to wrong way. Ms Frame: No, that's not correct. More Australians are coming forward. Yes, we said the number goes up of the Australians who are wanting to come home, but we are bringing more Australians home every week on the flights. 					Senator WONG: Of course, that's self-evident. But the actual number of people who are in need—your demand—is growing. So I'm just trying to clarify. Are we on track to bring 32,000 people home by Christmas? Ms Frame: I'll need to take that on notice and get you more detail. As my colleague has explained, I'm not trying to make it more complicated than it is, but there are a range of inputs that are affecting this—
0089	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Coordinated support for Australians located overseas	Senator WONG: On 21 August, the Prime Minister said: What I have asked for from the Foreign Affairs Minister and the Minister for Home Affairs and the Defence Minister is they bring forward measures to me and the Treasurer to see how we can better support those who are still overseas and we acknowledge that some of them are in some difficult circumstances. ... and we'll be doing more to help them in those circumstances and to assist them to get home within those caps. Have those measures been brought forward by the foreign affairs minister, the home affairs minister and the defence minister? ... Senator WONG: I also understand that the Department of Defence had provided advice and options to support Australians overseas, in support of other agencies. This is in an answer to a question on notice from Senator Keneally, in the COVID committee—sorry, it was not brought forward, but it had provided advice and options in support of other agencies. I'm simply trying to connect again. We had an announcement by the PM, saying, 'I've tasked these ministers to come back with something.' Defence hasn't come back with anything; they provided advice through this forum. It seems to me, and please tell me if I'm wrong, that what's occurred is that PM&amp;C has coordinated an interdepartmental committee, which has generated options. It's not actually been the home affairs minister, foreign affairs minister and defence minister bringing forward any options. Ms Foster: I think we're going to need to take on notice how this process has been coordinated and come back to you. Senator WONG: Really? You're coordinating it. Why do you need to take on notice what you have coordinated? Ms Frame has given me a lot of evidence about it. Frankly, she seems to be doing quite a lot of work on this—hopefully good work. Ms Foster: What I'm trying to get to is that we may need to take on notice exactly what came forward from the ministers.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, pages 86-87

0091	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	COVID-19 Response	Wong	Advice provided to Prime Minister – bringing Australians home	Senator WONG: In terms of the IDC, do you provide consolidated advice to the Prime Minister based on the IDC work about what options exist—the way forward—to bring people home? Ms Frame: We bring together all the agencies that I mentioned and provide a consolidated status report to the Prime Minister on where everyone is up to with their respective tasks under this plan to bring Australians home. Senator WONG: On notice, I'm asking for a copy of that advice. Ms Frame: Okay.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 92
0092	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Wong	Mr Abbott's visit to the United Kingdom and Europe	Senator WONG: ... Senator Cormann, can you tell me whether the PMO provided any assistance or facilitation to Mr Abbott in relation to his recent visit to the UK and Europe? Senator Cormann: Not that I'm aware, but I'd have to take that on notice.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 94
0093	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Wong	Mr Abbott's nomination to Boards of Trade	Senator WONG: Is the PMO aware of his appointment to the UK Board of Trade? Senator Cormann: I've obviously read about it in the media and I'm sure so has the PMO. Senator WONG: Did he have any discussion with the Prime Minister or the Prime Minister's staff about— Senator Cormann: Not that I'm aware, but— Senator WONG: about his intent to nominate for another country's board of trade?	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 94

					Senator Cormann: Not that I'm aware. Senator WONG: Can you take that on notice? Senator Cormann: Sure. Clearly, Mr Abbott is an individual in the same way Ms Gillard, Mr Rudd and Mr Howard are individuals, who, of course, are quite entitled to pursue opportunities in their private life after they have left the department. I'm not quite sure what sort of possible responsibilities you believe are relevant here in terms of Prime Minister Morrison. Senator WONG: I just wondered if he'd told him, and if so— Senator Cormann: As I say, I'm not aware. I'm not sure that it's— Senator WONG: I've just asked you to take it on notice.
0094	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Advice regarding trade deals	Senator WONG: ... Mr Abbott says he'll be providing advice to the UK government on its post-Brexit trade deals. Is PM&amp;C aware as to whether this would include the UK-Australia FTA? Ms Millar: The advice that we've received from the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade—and, in fact, through the UK government's Department for International Trade—was that advisers to the Board of Trade have no direct role in striking trade deals. Senator WONG: When did you seek this advice? Ms Millar: Actually, Senator, I'm not aware. My briefing says this, and I did ask. Senator WONG: I'd like to know why it was sought and when it was sought. Ms Millar: We can take that on notice for you.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 94
0095	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Announcement of international inquiry by Minister	Senator WONG: When were you aware that the minister would be announcing an international inquiry? Ms Millar: I don't recall when I personally was aware. Clearly, there was a lot of international activity, a lot of interest in such an inquiry, preceding the foreign minister's announcement. Let me check for you in case I have a little bit more on that. Senator WONG: I actually want to know whether or not you knew she would be announcing this inquiry, before you saw Insiders, if you watched Insiders. You may not watch Insiders. Ms Millar: Sometimes I do. Senator WONG: Sometimes I don't! Did you watch it this time? This is probably not good for your career. I shouldn't ask you that. Ms Millar: I did watch it. Senator WONG: Did you know about it before she announced it on Insiders? Ms Millar: I will get back to you. I simply don't recall. Senator WONG: Really! Ms Millar: Yes. Senator WONG: It's a pretty big thing. You are the international guru in PM&amp;C. Ms Millar: As you said, it was the foreign minister, supported by her department. Senator WONG: Hang on. Ms Millar: DFAT were running this issue, but I will certainly check for you, to the best of my ability, to work out whether I was advised before she made the announcement. Senator WONG: Were you part of any process for making the decision that Australia would go first and call for an international inquiry? Ms Millar: First of all, can I just make the point that by the time the foreign minister had made her announcement on 19 April there of course had been a number of other developments. The EU, for example, had circulated— Senator WONG: But that's a different point. We did not say we were going to join the EU. We made our own announcement about our own inquiry, including a reference subsequently to weapons inspectors. I am going to ask you some questions about this, but I first want to understand if there was a process within government, a proposal from DFAT, that you were aware of, or a	Hansard, 20 October 2020, pages 99-100 proposal from the foreign minister or from the Prime Minister that was considered by officials and the subject of advice before the announcement was made, meaning you had visibility of it, or not? Ms Millar: I don't recall having visibility of that decision before an announcement was made, but I can check with colleagues. Senator WONG: Okay, I will accept that answer, with the caveat that you are going to check and you will come back to me. Ms Millar: Absolutely.

0096	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Advice provided to Prime Minister following Minister Payne's announcement	Senator WONG: Did the department provide any advice to the Prime Minister on the position of like-minded nations in advance of Minister Payne announcing Australia's position on 19 April? Ms Millar: I'd have to check. As I said: because of all the other activities that were underway, we were aware of international interest in looking at the origins of the pandemic, which was quite consistent with the work that WHO does itself. We were conscious of a lot of activity underway	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 100
0097	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Representations to other nations supporting international inquiry	Senator WONG: At that stage then do I understand as far as you're aware we've not made any representations to other nations about supporting an international inquiry, as was announced by Minister Payne on 19 April? Ms Millar: We'd need to check with the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. As I said, there was a lot of talk, a lot of activity and a lot of work in Geneva underway, but the exact nature of representations that we'd need to—	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 100
0098	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Scheduling of Prime Ministers calls with foreign counterparts	Senator WONG: In relation to that, in the week after the announcement, this report was on 22 April, the Prime Minister had a number of calls with foreign counterparts which were advised to the media including Presidents Trump and Macron, Angela Merkel and others. Was PM&C responsible for scheduling these calls? Ms Millar: Yes, I think we would have been, Senator. We usually cooperate very closely with the Prime Minister's office on the scheduling of such calls. Senator WONG: When were you asked to schedule these calls? Before or after 19 April? Ms Millar: I'd need to check. Senator WONG: Were you asked to schedule them post the announcement or before? Ms Millar: The Prime Minister has made the most enormous number of calls this year to foreign leaders. Those precise ones I'd need to check. I just don't know.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 101
0099	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	World Health Organisation (WHO) inspector powers - Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet knowledge	Senator WONG: In the days subsequent to that announcement, media were told that Australia would lead a push for the WHO to be given the same powers as weapons inspectors to forcibly enter a country. Were you aware of this policy position before it was made public? Ms Millar: I'd need to check. Senator WONG: Did you have visibility of it before it became public? Ms Millar: I would need to check my records on that.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 101
0100	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Advice to the Prime Minister on weapons inspectors	Senator WONG: Is it the case in previous occasions where there have been weapons inspectors— Iraq, for example—that their entry into the nation concerned actually required an agreement from the government of that nation? Ms Millar: That's correct. Senator WONG: So it's not really compulsory, is it? It has to be negotiated. Ms Millar: That's correct. Senator WONG: Did the Prime Minister ever get told that? Ms Millar: We'd need to check with his office. Senator WONG: Did you ever provide advice about what 'weapons inspectors' actually meant? Ms Millar: I do recall talking to his office about that at one point and making the point you just made, but I can't remember exactly when that was. I'd have to check.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 102

0101	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Discussions with foreign counterparts on World Health Organisation (WHO) inspectors	Senator WONG: So did you ever understand the formal position of the Australian government to be pursuing the idea of the WHO having weapons inspector powers? Ms Millar: No, I'm not aware of that. As I said, colleagues who work on the health aspects are better placed to comment, but my understand was we were looking at what options were available that may have been canvassed before in the context of health crises that could be available to the international community. Senator WONG: Are you able to perhaps come back to me, or maybe your colleagues in DFAT can just give me this advice so I don't have to wait ages for someone to sign off on a written QON. In addition to the ones reported—so presidents Trump and Macron, and Chancellor Merkel—were there any other foreign counterparts in the week after the announcement where the Prime Minister raised these issues? Ms Millar: In the week after the announcement? Senator WONG: Yes. Ms Millar: I don't have the exact list here; although we can check that for you. Senator WONG: Thank you.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 103
0102	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Wong	Foreign counterparts support for World Health Organisation (WHO) inspectors	Senator WONG: Did any of them voice support for weapons inspectors? Ms Millar: I'm not aware of exactly what was raised in some of these conversations that you mention. Obviously, we have to treat the Prime Minister's conversation with international leaders in confidence. Senator WONG: Sure. Ms Millar: But we can certainly check the numbers at this time and consult on that. Senator WONG: Okay.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 103

Although, as you well know, it may be understood by countries in the Pacific that with our leadership role and our ongoing development leadership in the Pacific that would be something that would be reasonable to expect. Senator WONG: Other than the contribution to Gavi, which goes both to the development of and distribution—or is it just development of the vaccine? I haven't got it in front of me. Mr Brazier: To improve access for Pacific and south-eastern Asian countries to a safe, effective and affordable COVID vaccine when one is found. Senator WONG: No, that's the $23 million. I'm talking about the Gavi funding—that was $80 million. Shall I do it this way: have we actually funded, or do we have any policy propositions to support distribution if, and when, one arises? Mr Brazier: You could argue that that $23 million that I mentioned— Senator WONG: It's not a theoretical argument; it's a real-life question. Mr Brazier: That $23 million will be spent on health systems in our region to improve their capacity to distribute a vaccine when it becomes available. Senator WONG: Is that being delivered bilaterally or multilaterally? Mr Brazier: I'd have to check that for you.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 106-107

I might have to take on notice other attendees.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 111
0107	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	Foreign relations bill - inclusion of universities	Senator WONG: When was it determined that universities should be included in the remit of the legislation? Mr Reid: I would have to take that on notice. Senator WONG: Was there any point where they weren't?	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 111
0108	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	Initial visibility of draft foreign relations bill	Senator WONG: Who issued drafting instructions? Mr Reid: The Attorney-General's Department. Senator WONG: And they were the lead agency, I think you said. When did you first see a draft bill? Mr Reid: Ms Moran might have the date to hand. I'm just checking. Ms Moran: I think it was in early July, but we might have to take it on notice to confirm.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 111
0109	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Wong	Cabinet consideration of draft foreign relations bill	Senator WONG: ... Was the definition of 'Australian entities' as state, territory and local governments and Australian public universities amended at all during the drafting process? Ms Foster: I think that would go to the deliberations of cabinet. Senator WONG: On how many occasions was this considered by cabinet? Senator Cormann: I'll take that on notice. Senator WONG: Was it considered by cabinet prior to the announcement? Senator Cormann: Of course, but I'll take the date on notice. Did any of that happen? You've said the team within PM&amp;C was shadowing Health, but was there any seconding across either way? ... Ms Frame: Can I clarify: I've been given some additional information with regard to a question you asked earlier. I've been advised that there were some secondees from the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet to the National Incident Room in the Department of Health in the early stages of the outbreak. I will get you more detail on the timing, but there were some secondments that I wasn't aware of in the prior months.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, pages 118-119

I'm happy for you to take that on notice. Senator Cormann: I think that may be best. Senator KITCHING: I don't expect you to know the exact number. 					Senator KITCHING: That would be great if you could. If there was a consultation between the Department of Health and PM&amp;C, how did that consultation occur? Did the department receive a draft copy of the submission before it was finalised? And was there any comment provided on that draft that went into the submission from the Department of Health to the royal commission into aged care? Ms Foster: We'll take that on notice.
0120	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Social Policy	Kitching	Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety, Aged care and COVID-19 special report	Senator KITCHING: ... When did the department first become aware that the royal commission would be publishing a special report into the response to COVID-19 in aged care? Ms Frame: I don't have that information to hand. Ms Quilty? Senator KITCHING: You might also want to take this on notice: when did the Prime Minister or his office first become aware there was going to be a special report into the response to COVID-19 in aged care? When did the department become aware? When did the Prime Minister or the PMO become aware? I would be happy for you to take those on notice. Ms Frame: Yes, we can get you that information. Senator KITCHING: When did the Prime Minister receive a copy of the final report into the response to COVID-19 in aged care? I'm just seeing if I can quickly find the facts relating to the COVID inquiry—I don't think I have them easily at hand, so I will get them to you on notice. Senator KITCHING: Lovely; thank you. 0123	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Ministerial Support	Kitching	Question on notice from COVID-19 Inquiry	Senator KITCHING: ... On 4 June this year the department took on notice from Senator Watt whether there was any contact between the Prime Minister's Office and the department about the appointment of Mr Reid of Resolve Strategic—that was for a half million dollar market research contract. The department responded with a one word answer, which was no. However, it was 78 working days later, so it was about 60 working days overdue. What I'm wondering is—and it was a one-word response—why did it take the department so long to give a one-word answer; and what was the hold-up in providing that? Was that at the Prime Minister's Office end? I'd be happy for you to take that on notice. Ms Foster: I will take it on notice, because I don't have details of individual questions with me. Senator KITCHING: I think I can possibly give you the QON number—I think it's QON0079.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 123

On 2 March this year, at additional budget estimates, the department also took on notice when it first briefed the Prime Minister on coronavirus. The department provided an answer but it was many months overdue. The answer was: 'The department has regularly briefed the Prime Minister and his office on issues relating to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak in China'. It was a pretty simple question. Why didn't it warrant a simple answer? I am happy for you to take that on notice. But we just asked when the Prime Minister was first briefed. 					Ms Foster: Thank you.
0125	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Kitching	Prime Ministers phone calls regarding aged-care	Senator KITCHING: ... I have just one more question. We discussed the daily calls the Prime Minister was having around aged care. If they have stopped, what date did they stop on? I'm happy for this to be taken on notice. Ms Foster: Ms Frame's advice was that the calls are continuing. They are not necessarily every day at the moment. The frequency depends on the pace at which the issues are moving, so it ranges between, in some cases, multiple times a day in a peak period, through to a couple, two or three times a week. But they are still very frequent. Senator KITCHING: Okay. When did they stop being daily? I'm just after a date. If you can take that on notice, that will be fine. Not only is it fine; it will be helpful. Ms Foster: We will.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 124
0126	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	McKenzie	Advice regarding business restrictions	Senator McKENZIE: So the advice that informed the business restrictions that individual jurisdictions could implement came from the AHPPC? Ms McGregor: The Prime Minister announced that, yes, on 30 March. Senator McKENZIE: Yes. He announced that. So did that include advice—what sort of level of advice did that have and who provided that? Ms McGregor: I would have to take that on notice.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 125
0127	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	Ayres	Announcements of decisions by National Cabinet	Senator AYRES: Are you able to tell us whether all of the decisions of the national cabinet were announced in the subsequent press conference or press statement for each of these meetings? Without breaching Westminster conventions—we have heard a long discussion about that and some less believable assertions that have been made about how it all works—is it possible to tell us whether all of the decisions of each of the national cabinet meetings have been announced subsequently? Ms Foster: I couldn't give you 100 per cent— Senator AYRES: It's a binary proposition—yes or no? Ms Foster: Overwhelmingly, the decisions that are taken are announced. Senator AYRES: Would you be able to, on notice, list those meetings and identify yes or no as to whether 100 per cent of the decisions have been announced in the subsequent press conferences? Ms Foster: I can certainly take on notice to see if I can do that. 0128	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Ayres	Discussion between Minister Cormann and the Prime Minister Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) role	Senator AYRES: Who did you first talk to in the government about the OECD role? Senator Cormann: I did not raise that; it was raised with me. Senator AYRES: By the Prime Minister? Senator Cormann: Yes. Senator AYRES: And when was that? Senator Cormann: I honestly can't remember. It's a little while ago now, I'd have to check my records. I can confirm that at some point after I had indicated to the Prime Minister my desire to manage an orderly transition towards the end of the year, he put the question to me on whether I would be prepared to nominate as the Australian candidate for that position and, after consideration and discussion with my family, I said yes. Senator AYRES: In the first quarter of this year? Senator Cormann: No, later. Closer to the middle of the year. Senator AYRES: Would you be able to tell us on notice? Senator Cormann: I'm happy to take that on notice.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 133

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
					Mr Wood: We've been waiting eagerly, Senator! Senator AYRES: All day! The figures I have in front of me are 867 in 2019-20 to 1,067 in 2020-21. Mr Wood: That is correct. It reflects recent budget measures as well as a forecast increase in some of our staffing levels. [...] Senator AYRES: Are you able to set out for us, perhaps on notice, what these new staff will do? Mr Wood: Certainly, Senator. Some of the increase relates to a forecast increase for the National Bushfire Recovery Agency as well as some of the new measures regarding support for the government's COVID response—there are some additional staffing resources for the COVID commission—as well as some additional support for our task forces. Ms Foster: By way of context, earlier this year we redirected departmental resources to cover some of the functions, and we were able to do that because we were clearly redirecting all of our resources towards the crisis. As we've returned to a broader set of responsibilities, and we still have the new responsibilities, we have needed additional resourcing to cover that. Senator AYRES: I sat through the National Bushfire Recovery Agency estimates and the COVID commission this morning. It does not account for 200 staff, does it? Mr Wood: No, Senator. Of the 200 staff, roughly 41.5 relates to the National Bushfire Recovery Agency and— Senator AYRES: How many, sorry? Mr Wood: It's 41.5 ASL in this current financial year, 20-2021; 99.3 ASL that comes from new measures that were announced in this budget; and 59.6 that relates to a forecast increase in our staffing levels. We were slightly below, as Ms Foster intimated, last financial year; we had a few vacancies. We are forecasting to fill those vacancies this financial year. Senator AYRES: Thank you for setting that out for me straight away. Will you be in a position, on notice, to set out for us where each of those positions are going to fall? Mr Wood: Yes. Roughly 99.3 relates to the new measures. There were some additional measures in the budget relating to, as I mentioned, some task forces, the government's deregulation package and the establishment of a critical technology coordination office. We could, on notice, provide you with a bit more of a detailed breakdown.
0130	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Corporate	Ayres	Contract with Jones Lang LaSalle for property management services	Senator AYRES: ... The department has a $8.2 million contract over three years with Jones Lang LaSalle for property management services. Is anybody in a position to talk to me about that? Mr Wood: We could probably both have a go. Senator AYRES: Good. What is that for? What services are provided in the contract? Mr Wood: Having promised we could have a go, I would suggest it relates to the property management of our accommodation. PM&amp;C is located in three buildings on National Circuit—1 National Circuit, 4 National Circuit and 10 National Circuit. I don't have the specific details of that contract with me. We may need to come back to you with those further details. Senator AYRES: But it is in relation to those Canberra properties, is it? Mr Wood: I expect so. Senator AYRES: Could you provide us with those details on notice? Mr Wood: Yes.	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 135
0131	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Corporate	Ayres	Details of contract with Jones Lang LaSalle on AusTender	Senator AYRES: Was the contract notice not published on AusTender until January 2020? Ms Foster: I think, without the details with him, Mr Wood will have to take that on notice. Senator AYRES: But it runs from July 2018 to June 2021. I accept, Ms Foster, you will come back to us— Ms Foster: I'm just conscious that it doesn't appear that Mr Wood has the details right in front of him—	Hansard, 20 October 2020, page 135

					Ms Frame: Yes.  Senator WONG: You have an end date of Christmas. What that then implies, what one can deduce from that, is the number of people who have to come home per week in order to make that happen—yes?  Ms Frame: Yes.  Senator WONG: How many have to come home per week?  Ms Frame: I don't know what that number is. I'll have to check for you.  Senator WONG: That's the one you're getting on notice for me?  Ms Frame: It does move all the time, but I will get you the modelling.  Senator WONG: But you can give an order. What do you mean it moves?  Ms Frame: It doesn't correlate directly to a number of facilitated commercial flights.  Senator WONG: Of course not. That's the next question. You're jumping ahead. The first question is: what does the Prime Minister's announcement, the number of people who are stranded, the number of people we assume will join that we want to come home, imply in terms of the number of people we need to get home each week?  Ms Frame: As I said, the last modelling I saw on that was based on a number of 26,800, and we modelled how many people would need to come home on that figure, and that figure keeps changing. And more people are coming home—  Senator WONG: Do you have the 26,000 number?  Ms Frame: I can get you that number.

0170	Australian National Audit Office		Rennick	Comparative property sales	A 5 acre property on 250 Badgerys Creek Road, Bringelly is currently listed at $5.75 million; in Oct 2018, 10 Martin Road, another 5 acre property was sold for $5.75 million; at 14 Eastwood Road a 3 acre property is under contract for $7.5 million and as quoted in the Australian Financial Review, a ten acre poultry "farm" recently sold for $14.5 million. Don't these listings/sales demonstrate that the market value of the 30-acre parcel of the Leppington Triangle is considerably more than $3 million, given that market value for "just terms" is based on highest and best use?	Written
0171	Australian National Audit Office		Rennick	Land value increase as a result of the Government's commitment to build additional airport	Land values around the airport have exploded since the Federal Government's commitment to building the airport. 0172	Australian National Audit Office		Rennick	Discounted cashflow model to determine market value of the Leppington triangle	Using the discounted cashflow model, if the second runway wasn't secure then the discount factor (risk premium) would be higher. 0253	Aboriginal Hostels Limited		McCarthy	CEO recruitment process	Senator McCARTHY: What was the recruitment process that you had to go through? Mr Chalmers: There was a recruitment process last year, which, I understand, didn't produce a candidate that the committee and board were comfortable with. I was rung then by the recruitment agency and asked if I would be willing to apply. I did. I went through the same process that other candidates had gone through. So I had to write a written application, and I was interviewed by the panel, and, subsequently, I was selected for the job. Senator McCARTHY: Minister, to put the question to you more appropriately: were there a number of candidates for the position? Senator Ruston: I'm unaware of the process surrounding the appointment. I'd be happy to take it on notice. Hopefully, I'll be able to get the answer back to you this morning.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 4
0254	Aboriginal Hostels Limited		McCarthy	Aboriginal Hostels Limited – List of Indigenous CEOs	Senator McCARTHY: Thank you very much. Again, Minister, has Aboriginal Hostels Ltd ever had an Indigenous CEO? Senator Ruston: Clearly, I'll take that on notice and get back to you with an answer. Mr Chalmers: Senator, I can help you with that question. Senator McCARTHY: Thank you, Mr Chalmers. Mr Chalmers: Yes, Aboriginal Hostels has had Indigenous CEOs in the past. Senator McCARTHY: How many, Mr Chalmers? Mr Chalmers: I don't know the number. Senator McCARTHY: Would you or the minister take that on notice, and who they were? Mr Chalmers: Sure.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, pages 4-5
0255	Aboriginal Hostels Limited		McCarthy	Closure of hostel beds COVID-19	Mr Harvey: We closed the hostels to all new visitors, apart from emergency medical facilities—so, basically for both student hostels and multipurpose hostels we closed. And we introduced a whole range of measures to deal with COVID. We effectively took about 146 beds offline. But we were also ensuring that we had social distancing, both within the rooms and within the dining area. We were very conscious of that as well. Senator McCARTHY: When you say 146 beds offline, do you mean across all your properties? Mr Harvey: Correct. Senator McCARTHY: Would we be able to get a list of those properties and those reductions? Mr Harvey: Yes. Senator McCARTHY: And also the timetable from March until now? Mr Harvey: Yes. Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
					Mr Viswanathan: I can't speak to what may have been done by the government. As far as IBA goes, though, I will say I think the results and the performance, since then, and the broader market has proven exactly the opposite. We've seen, since that time, the royal commission. We've seen a very rigorous examination of how banks do their lending. We've seen that the types of practices that IBA employs are what are recommended, in terms of being very hands on with customers, very customer-centric. Our purpose shines through, in how we work with our customers, and is reflected not just in the satisfaction results we get but also in the low level of defaults. We do everything we can to keep people in homeownership. I would say, if you reflect on everything that's happened since 2015 and where the mainstream lenders are now moving, it is a reflection and a recognition that there are customers who haven't been supported appropriately by mainstream lenders. They have needed the type of support that IBA offers, have received that support and, in our annual customer satisfaction surveys, which we do digitally—that is another improvement made since 2015. We receive extremely high ratings, I'm proud to say that there is close to 90 per cent satisfaction. I think our net promoter score is many multiples higher than a major bank. So, I would say, the record speaks for itself. Senator AYRES: I can see you're proud of that work here, and obviously there is excellent work going on. I'm not critical about that. I just wondered whether that formal assessment had been done. Presumably, it's not something that would be done by—you can't really assess yourself and your own program. It's natural for an agency or organisation that's invested so much to be absolutely purposeful and clear about their own role. I just wondered whether government had done that assessment. Mr Viswanathan: I don't know more broadly in government. I do know, early on in my term—I commenced, at the end of 2016, acting—we had a follow-up review, which also recognised the importance of the program. We've also, I think, had follow-up correspondence, which I can provide on notice, indicating that the recommendations in the report itself were addressed. Senator AYRES: Would you be able to provide that, Minister? It's really a recommendation for government. The ANAO 'recommends that the Australian government assess whether a government-run loan program is the most efficient mechanism'. Are you in a position to say whether the government responded by conducting a formal assessment or whether the review process that Mr Viswanathan referred to is what the government relied upon or whether there was any response to the officers' recommendation at all? Senator Ruston: I will have to take that on notice, but we'll try to get something back to you this morning. Senator AYRES: Thank you.
0267	Indigenous Business Australia		Ayres	Homeloans	Senator AYRES: The audit report—it's five years old—says, over the course of the 40 years, IBA has assisted over 16,000 households. Can I take it from that that there's an additional 4,000 home loans being generated over the intervening period? Is that broadly right? Mr Viswanathan: Yes, it's all in our annual reports, but we've had a really big four years ... Senator AYRES: So the high water mark is 1,000 homes a year. Is there some target around that number? Mr Viswanathan: We're ultimately constrained by the amount of capital available in any given year. In the PBS that was just published, it's $200 million of lending that we are hoping to do in the coming year, which is 600-odd loans. We would love to be able to do 1,000 loans a year. We know operationally we can deliver that but we're constrained by the capital. Senator AYRES: So does the additional announcement mean, on top of that 600 homes, it might be more in the next financial year depending on the capital constraints and how everything is proceeding?	Hansard, 23 October 2020, pages 12-13

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
					Mr Viswanathan: No, that $200 million for the year ahead takes into account the capital that is coming in, the new injection. Senator AYRES: I mean the financial year after that? So 600, and the additional $150 million, you say, would support an additional—I am averaging over three years—120? Mr Viswanathan: That's correct. I would say though that in the budget year we're in, the new capital only comes in back end of November. Senator AYRES: I am not going to tie you to these figures. I'm trying to get a sense of the scale of the announcement and what that means for the result in communities. It's circa an additional 120 homes, round about a 20 or 25 per cent increase in capacity. Is that broadly right? Mr Viswanathan: I might do my sums and get back to you. Senator AYRES: Would you mind? For the purpose of the discussion, I'm trying to understand what it is the government is trying to achieve here. If, on notice, you could provide some more accurate over-the-forwards sense of what the government hopes to achieve.
0268	Indigenous Business Australia		Ayres	Number of home loans refinanced	Senator AYRES: Have you got figures about the number of loans that end up being refinanced? Mr Viswanathan: Yes, it's one of our PBS targets, actually: I think about 4.5 per cent of our book each year is refinances, and we've been meeting that target. As I said, we're working on these banking partnerships. Senator AYRES: So you do track the success of that. Could you give me on notice the last three years and how that's proceeded? Mr Viswanathan: Sure.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 15
0269	Indigenous Business Australia		Ayres	Expressions of Interest for pandemic assistance	Senator AYRES: I think Minister Wyatt announced $50 million for Indigenous businesses as an initial response to the pandemic. Can you tell me how much of that $50 million has been allocated? Mr Viswanathan: I think, so far, $19 million has been committed. As I mentioned, it was a package to be deployed over 12 months. The components are the rapid business assessment and then the working capital package. We're steadily working through the expressions of interest that have come in and deploying as we can—recognising that the package was meant to be a supplement to other forms of mainstream stimulus that are available. Senator AYRES: Can you tell me, on notice, how many have applied for the EOI process, how many businesses have received allocations and what the stepping stones are from now in terms of the EOI process and when decisions are likely to be made? I just want to get a sense of whether that money's going to get out the door over the 12-month timetable that's been foreshadowed. Mr Viswanathan: We're working very hard to do exactly that. Senator AYRES: I don't doubt it, but, could you provide me with that information on notice? I think it will help me to understand. Chair, I don't have any further questions.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 15
0270	Indigenous Business Australia		Paterson	Victorian COVID supports	CHAIR: I'm interested generally in the COVID supports that you put in place for both individual home loan customers and business customers, particularly in my home state of Victoria, which has had a disproportionate burden to bear in this COVID crisis with a long second lockdown. I'm interested in any insights you can share about how your Victorian customers, in particular, are faring and what you've been doing to support them? Mr Viswanathan: They are certainly recipients of the COVID package. In addition to that, we've tried to do some additional marketing about what's available, and we offered some top-up funding for Victorian businesses in particular. That's being rolled out at the moment. I've got some stats that I can provide on notice about what we're doing in Victoria. We have tried hard to make sure that support is offered around the country and where it's needed most. CHAIR: I'm interested as a senator for Victoria. I would be interested in any data that you've got that can unpack that extra support that you said you provided for Victorian businesses, and maybe take-up rates and how that compares to the rest of the country. That would be really interesting. Mr Viswanathan: Will do.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 16

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
0271	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations	Thorpe	Indigenous corporations breakdown of sizes	Senator THORPE: Mr Button, how many Indigenous corporations are there in Australia? Mr Button: As at 30 September we had 3,398 across the country. Senator THORPE: I understand that there are small, medium and large corporations. Of those 3,000 corporations, could you give us a breakdown of how many small, medium and large corporations there are? And what defines small, medium and large? Mr Button: I don't have the breakdown in front of me, Senator. I can get that back to you and provide that to the committee post today. But the size classifications are determined by level of income.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 19
0272	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations	Thorpe	Inactive Indigenous corporations	Senator THORPE: How many of those over 3,000 corporations are active and how many are inactive? Mr Button: There are many inactive corporations. I don't have the numbers here in front of me. It's a good question. We do have many corporations which are inactive and going through a process of deregistration. Over the last month, we've actually looked at deregistering three corporations across the country. One of the challenges that we have in relation to deregistration or inactive corporations is that many of the corporations still have assets. If a corporation has assets we can't deregister it, because we then have to look at either transferring those assets to another corporation or working out what we do with the corporation and the assets that it holds. There are several landholding bodies with no activity happening at those corporations. We actually have a lot of those in WA, where there are lots of landholding bodies. No activity is generated and there's no revenue or income generated through the trust and the body itself. They're inactive in the sense of the reporting that comes back to ORIC and back to my office. That's purely because, in a sense, they're trustees for the land, although nothing happens on those particular lands; no activities are occurring to generate income or revenue. But I can certainly come back with some more specific numbers for you about inactive corporations, and even provide some breakdown in terms of landholding bodies which are inactive. We do have some specific numbers about knowing what that looks like these days. Senator LINES: Can you do that by state? Senator THORPE: Yes, please. Mr Button: We can do that by state. Senator THORPE: If I could receive that on notice, that would be great. Mr Button: Yes, not a problem.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, pages 19-20
0273	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations	Lines	List of groups to deregister	Senator LINES: Could I ask for something on notice? You talked about actively working with groups to deregister. Can you give us a list of groups that you are currently working with to deregister them, by state?	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 22
0274	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Programs Performance and Delivery	Thorpe	Indigenous Advancement Strategy funding	Senator THORPE: How many Aboriginal community controlled organisations received funding from the Indigenous Advancement Strategy? Mr Griggs: I'd have to take the exact details of that on notice.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 28
0275	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Programs Performance and Delivery	Thorpe	Breakdown of services provided by non-Indigenous insurance providers	Senator THORPE: Can you provide on notice further information about who is getting what and what programs they are running in communities, or is that not open for community information? Mr Griggs: I'm trying to put my arms around that particular question, Senator, to give you the specificity that you want. Are you seeking a breakdown of non-Indigenous service providers and what services they provide? Senator THORPE: Yes. Mr Griggs: We can take that on notice. Senator THORPE: Thank you.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 29

0276	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Minister for Indigenous Australians	Dodson	Juukan Gorge – Minister’s office awareness	Senator DODSON: My questions are in relation to Juukan Gorge. Mr Griggs, was the minister made aware of the call from the PKKP lawyer on 20 May 2020 and of the imminent destruction of the Juukan Gorge shelters? Mr Griggs: Senator, I'm not aware of the internal communication channels within the minister's office. I would go back to my evidence that I gave to the inquiry. Senator DODSON: Is there anyone who can answer the question? Mr Griggs: I don't believe anyone in the agency has knowledge of what internal communications there were in the minister's office. Senator Ruston: Senator, I'm more than happy to take that on notice for you. Senator DODSON: Thanks, Minister. Can you also take on notice whether the minister or anyone from his office immediately or independently raised the issue with Minister Ley or anyone from her office? Senator Ruston: Sure; happy to. Senator DODSON: It would be nice if we had an answer, but if you could take it on notice, Minister. Senator Ruston: I don't know off the top of my head, but I'm sure that the staff in both offices will be listening and, hopefully, they'll get that information to me as quickly as possible.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 36
0277	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Minister for Indigenous Australians	Dodson	Juukan Gorge – Contact with Rio Tinto	Senator DODSON: Thank you, Minister; I appreciate your cooperation. Did the minister or anyone from his office—again, this may be on notice, Minister—receive or make any contact with Rio Tinto prior to the destruction of the Juukan rock shelter? Senator Ruston: I'll take that on notice.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 36
0278	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Minister for Indigenous Australians	Dodson	Administration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Protection Act	Senator DODSON: Has any consideration been given to transferring the administration of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Protection Act to sit back within the Indigenous Affairs portfolio? Senator Ruston: I'm not aware. Mr Griggs: Not to my knowledge. Senator Ruston: I'm not aware of that, Senator, but we will attempt to get you confirmation.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, pages 35-36
0279	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Social Policy and Programs	Dodson	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Protection Act – Budget papers	Senator DODSON: It's just that in evidence given to the committee that's inquiring into this, the lawyer had gone to the Indigenous affairs minister, believing he was the relevant minister, when in fact he wasn't; Minister Ley was. Can you explain to me the $2.2 million over four years—I presume it's either to the agency or to someone else—to help understand or promote the ATSI Heritage Protection Act? I think it is budget paper 2, page 51. Mr Griggs: Is that in the environment department's budget papers? Senator DODSON: I thought it was in yours. Mr Exell: Senator, was that $2.2 million or $2.2 billion? I wasn't sure. Senator DODSON: It would be great if it were billions, but I don't think it is. Mr Exell: That's what I why I thought I'd better check. Senator DODSON: I think it's $2.2 million. Mr Exell: It's not in our budget papers. Senator DODSON: It's over four years, so it's not a lot of money. Mr Griggs: I am suspecting that it's in the environment's budget papers; it's not in ours. Senator DODSON: Maybe you might take that on notice, Mr Griggs, and just clear it up for me, if you wouldn't mind. Mr Griggs: Certainly.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 36
0280	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Strategic Policy	Ayres	Project planning implementation timetables	Mr Griggs: Our regional staff, by necessity, are close. You want them engaged in the community. But sometimes they get too close. This at least gives them a mechanism to step back and say, 'This is the bigger piece of the strategy we're trying to achieve', and objectively look at this work and see how it applies in their place based situation.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, pages 39-40

 PRIME MINISTER AND CABINET PORTFOLIO

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd	Date Tabled
					Senator AYRES: What's the timetable? Have you got one of those terrible diagrams—the one with all the colours that says when different things are going to be implemented? What is it called again? Senator Ruston: It's called a Gantt chart. Senator AYRES: I've tried to forget all this stuff and here it is, back again! Do you have one of those that describes what progress you are going to make over the coming 12 months? Mr Exell: You will be thrilled to hear we have a whole range of Gantt charts not just for this but for many of the topics that we've been talking about today. Senator AYRES: They're very good for keeping people on task, yes. Mr Exell: That project planning, project implementation—there are a range of things we have been talking about today. I will have to take on notice whether we've got— Senator AYRES: If there's something that can tell the committee what the timetable is for the implementation of this work—I don't want to see all your internal work on that; I understand that's a bit of a process. But if there's something that helps us with that—
0281	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Strategic Policy	Ayres	Indigenous voice to Parliament consultation	Senator AYRES: Thank you. I have two more questions—not on this, thank you, Mr Exell. Over the lunch break, Mr Griggs, you were going to work out whether you would be able to provide the unredacted version of the documents that Senator McCarthy and Senator Dodson were talking about—the voice related meetings. Are you in a position to provide those? Mr Griggs: I've asked for more advice, so I can understand the implications. I absolutely commit to provide what I can, but I do want to look at it in a more measured way, if that's fine. Senator AYRES: So you will provide that on notice, subject to a public interest immunity claim or a cabinet-in-confidence claim? Senator Ruston: I'm not making an immunity claim. Senator AYRES: That's what I thought I heard. How would you construct an argument to say it shouldn't be provided? Senator Ruston: My understanding is that there were a wide range of individuals who put forward their time to undertake these consultative groups, and that there were undertakings given to those people. So it's a matter of making sure, through the process of assessment that Mr Griggs will go through, that we are not in breach of any undertakings we gave to those people. If we're not, all the material will be released. It's just a double-checking to make sure that there's nothing that—	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 40
0282	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Minister for Indigenous Australians	Ayres	Voice interim report release	Senator AYRES: Thanks, Minister. Similarly, the voice interim report—I think where we left it before lunch was that the minister would make a decision about whether or not the interim report and the timetable would be released. I have to say to you that I think the government might sustain a proposition that is not consistent with where the community would think 'the more information, the better'. I can see that it's sustainable in the committee environment to say, 'Well, it's a document that's to inform the minister and the cabinet process', but I don't think that's publicly sustainable. When you're consulting with the minister about this smaller issue, I'd like to hear back pretty quickly what the position is in relation to the interim report. Senator Ruston: I will certainly take that on notice. I understand the minister has already made his position clear. He hasn't even had the opportunity to consider that report. Senator AYRES: I think you said he has been provided it or is about to be provided it.	Hansard, 23 October 2020, page 40
