Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email below.

At the very latest, we would be very grateful for a response from the OLSC by 15 August 2022. Depending on the Attorney-General's position, this will give the ABCC sufficient time to communicate this outcome to the other parties in advance of the hearing.

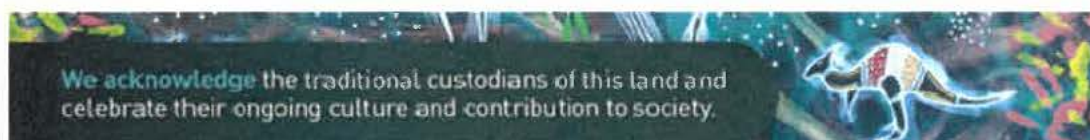

Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

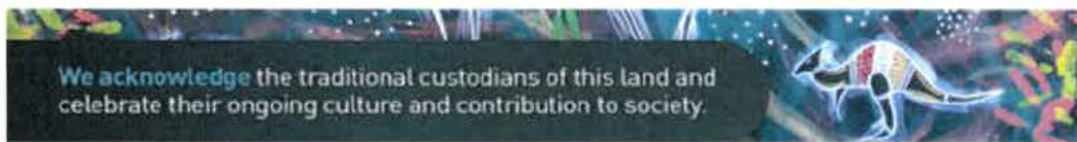

I confirm receipt of your email below and note we have begun review the attached material in anticipation of the 18-19 August 2022 hearing date.

For the purposes of managing timeframes, could ABCC confirm the latest date in which OLSC can respond by? As we will need to brief the Attorney-General, we would be grateful for as much time as possible.

Additionally, I note I am the contact officer for this matter and can be reached at any time on the details below.

Kind regards,

Dear OLSC,

The Australian Building and Construction Commissioner and Australian Building and Construction Inspector Robert Dalton are respondents in the above appeal proceedings. The appeal proceedings have previously been reported as a significant matter pursuant to clause 3.1 of the Legal Services Directions 2017 (LSD).

The ABCC wishes to agree to discontinue the appeal proceedings.

Clause 3.2 of the LSD requires the ABCC to obtain the Attorney-General's approval for such settlement. Accordingly, please find attached to this email a completed Significant Issues Settlement Request for your attention.
