

BEING PREPARED FOR A NEW FOSTER PLACEMENT

Foster Care Association of Victoria Position:

Accepting a placement can be a difficult process and the FCAV believes carers should take time and careful consideration before making any final decision. It is important for carers to consider all factors regarding any new placement and how this will affect their family and personal situation to ensure the placement will be positive for everyone involved. Listed below are possible questions carers can ask so they make an informed decision when taking on a new placement.

It is also important to take into consideration that at the time of referral the foster care agency may not have all available information. If the placement is going to commence, as much additional detail as possible should then be provided via your Community Service Organisation.
