

---

I believe killing an unborn child, a person, a human being is an absolute horrendous act of man kind. I strongly disagree, especially with killing the unborn just because of it's God given gender and i hate to think about the wasted Medicare dollars which goes into the murder. Praying for the leaders of this nation to focus on what's so important to us all...(the religious and the non religious) life.

April Schoenmaker