

Aboriginal Family Legal Service Supplementary Information to the Joint Standing Committee on Implementation of the National Redress Scheme

Aboriginal Family Legal Service advised that it would provide supplementary information to the Joint Standing Committee in response to Senator Dean Smith's question relating to how many inquiries the Redress program has had and how many applications the Redress team has supported (page 14 of the proof transcript from the Public Inquiry, 7 July 2023). This information is provided in the table below.

	Total
Number of inquiries	112
Number of applications lodged	22
Number of applications in progress	21
Number of clients waitlisted to assist	31
Number of clients unable to contact for further information	12
Number of applicants unable to be assisted due to conflicts of interest or outside of service area	26