

Murray-Darling Basin submission

Dear Sir/Madam,

Taking up to 30% of farmers' water for irrigation is wrong. Climate variation in the Basin produces dry and wet periods as a normal cycle of "drought and flooding rains" and will continue to do so into the future.

Give farmers a fair go.

Kind regards,
Dr Kris Deuar