

Below is a copy of an email I sent to Nola Marino on 5 April this year. This still represents my feelings on the subject.

Fortunately for my son, he was eventually able to access Youth Allowance while studying 200km from home.

Regards

Gary Kimpton