RE: eSafety submission to inquiry into foreign interference through social media

On Friday, 17 February 2023, my office provided the Committee with an erroneous submission for the inquiry into foreign interference through social media. This submission has been published on the inquiry's webpage.

Since realising this error, I am now providing the Committee with an updated and finalised submission.

I ask the Committee to consider the updated version as the only true and correct submission from eSafety, and that the original version is not considered by Committee members.

I look forward to seeing the inquiry progress.

Yours faithfully,
