

THE SENATE

SELECT COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN INTERFERENCE THROUGH SOCIAL MEDIA

MEDIA RELEASE

23 September 2020

The Senate's Select Committee on Foreign Interference through Social Media has been in communication with Facebook to arrange their appearance at a public hearing. Facebook was initially willing to participate and tentatively confirmed as a witness for the hearing set down for Friday 25 September.

Facebook has since stated that key personnel are not willing to make themselves available on this date. Facebook has expressed a preference for any appearance to be after the US election.

TikTok and the University of Canberra's News and Media Research Centre remain confirmed as witnesses for Friday.

For more information about this Committee, you can visit its website. On the site, you can make a submission to an inquiry, read other submissions, and get details for upcoming public hearings. You can also track the Committee and receive email updates by clicking on the blue 'Track Committee' button in the bottom right hand corner of the page.
