

Question on notice from Senator Siewert to the Australian Communications and Media Authority, 26 June 2020:

What additional resources did the government make available to the Australian Communications and Media Authority to proactively block illegal offshore gambling sites and educate the community of the risks of and lack of consumer protections associated with using such online gambling products?

The Australian Communications and Media Authority provided the following response, 2 July 2020:

These activities have been funded through the reprioritisation of existing ACMA resources.
