Senate Standing Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs

Handling of a letter sent by Mr Man Haron Monis to the Attorney-General

Responses to questions taken on notice at hearing on Friday 19 June

1. Why was the press release issued by the Attorney-General on 28 May 2015 taken down from the Attorney-General's website on 29 May?

The Attorney-General's Department's web publishing area published the media release on the Attorney-General's website on 28 May around 3pm shortly after it was issued by the Attorney-General.

The department subsequently removed the release from the Attorney-General's website on 29 May following an assessment by an officer in the department that placing the release on the website may not be consistent with the 'Guidelines for Ministerial and Agency Websites' issued by the Department of Finance. In deciding to remove the release, the officer had regard to the statement in the Guidelines that 'agency-funded websites should not contain material of a party political nature'. In making the decision to remove the media release the officer did not consult the Attorney-General's office.

2. Did the department provide a Question Time brief on 28 May 2015 and can a copy of the Question Time Brief be provided to the Committee?

Yes.

As the Question Time Brief is considered advice to government, it would not be appropriate to provide a copy of the brief. However, the department can confirm the brief states that '[i]n response to a request for copies of correspondence between the Attorney General or the Department and Monis, AGD provided all correspondence to the Siege Review', which was the department's understanding at the time.

3. Can a copy of the index of correspondence be provided?

Copies of tab one and tab two of the spreadsheet index of correspondence are attached. Tab one contains records in TRIM, the department's general record management system, and tab two contains records in ExecCorro, the department's ministerial correspondence system. Details of the subject of the correspondence and names of private individuals have been redacted to ensure there is no prejudice to the coronial inquiry or other proceedings or disclosure of personal information.

4. Can you provide details of contact the department had between 29 May and 4 June with the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, the Attorney-General's Office, the Minister for Foreign Affairs or the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade about the provision to the Review of the letter sent by Mr Man Haron Monis to the Attorney-General?

At the hearing on 19 June, Mr Sheehan indicated that he had information 'that on Monday 1 June at 9:30, PM&C advised that they did not have the letter in question'. This is not correct. As set out below, the first advice that PM&C gave to the department about the letter in question was at 12:15pm on 1 June. That advice stated that PM&C had 'checked the index of AGD documents for the Martin Place Review very carefully. The letter is not there.'

Set out below are details of the department's contact with the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet and with the Attorney-General's Office regarding the issue of the department's provision to the Siege Review of a letter from Mr Monis to the Attorney-General dated 7 October 2014 and the department's reply. The department had no contact with the Prime Minister's Office, the office of the Minister for Foreign Affairs or Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade on the letter in question.
