

Climate Action Submission

Climate change is real.

Prevention is better than cure.

The cost to the economy and wellbeing of everyone will be immense if we don't take action.

Our generation must act.

I have grandchildren and feel a responsibility to act on the science which has become undeniable.

This parliament must act now and the sooner we get to net zero emissions the better.

Please act now.