Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for forwarding the letter from Senator Xenophon regarding [REDACTED]

I have now had the opportunity to consider the letter and establish with the operator the general nature of the allegations and claims.

I note that you attached to the letter a general disclaimer in terms of the release of personal information to you. Unfortunately that letter is insufficient for our purposes and I have to ask you to get [REDACTED] to sign the attached note, suitably witnessed (by yourself/other identifiable staff member) before we are able to disclose Mr Samuel's gambling history to you.

Please also find attached a copy of our complaints form (CRRF) and the Commissioner's advice to potential complainants. If [REDACTED] wishes to submit the CRRF to us in lieu of communications from yourself, then this will be sufficient for our purposes.

Yours sincerely
