

I respectfully submit that coal seam gas production is a non renewable and very dangerous and short term solution to our energy needs.

We do not have enough data on the effect it will have on the safety of our ground water. Why not put the resources into solar?

Kind regards
Barbara Groom