

Australian Criminal Intelligence Model

MISSION

The free flow of intelligence across the policing, law enforcement, law compliance and national security environments

PRINCIPLES

- Intelligence must be customer focused and requirements driven
- Information and intelligence should be collected once and used often
- Information security requirements should be balanced accordingly to enable the right people to access the right information quickly, securely and from the right sources

Policing & Community Safety Domain

VISION
Intelligence partnerships for a safer Australia

National Security Domain

Serious and Organised Crime Domain

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

1. Ensure quality intelligence supports tactical, operational and strategic decision-making
2. Inculcate a culture where security requirements are balanced and information generated and held by individual jurisdictions and the Commonwealth is valued as a national asset for all
3. Establish common standards, processes and protocols for managing intelligence assets
4. Professionalise the intelligence discipline through development of national standards for intelligence practitioners and analysts
5. Embed an agreed national threat, harm and risk assessment methodology
6. Pursue common technical and security architectures for information and intelligence holdings
7. Maximise the value-add of fusion and technical analysis capabilities
