I write in support of the Hon. Senator Madigan's above-mentioned Bill: While as a disciple of Jesus Christ, I am of the Pro-Life persuasion, I submit that the practice of aborting unborn infants because they are not of a gender desired by their parents ought also to be abhorrent to the vast majority of Pro-Choice abortion advocates. Discrimination against already-born persons on the grounds of their maleness or femaleness is roundly condemned in even the most progressive circles as Sexism. Sexism ought not be allowed to reach its ugly hand into Australian wombs.

Recently I met a fine young man from the People's Republic of China: Because of the government's draconian population policy in China, this man will never have a brother or a sister to support and love: Such policies in China have tended to see gender-selective abortions which have created a rising generation whose gender ratio is out of balance, because more sons than daughters are born!

Yours sincerely,

John C. Wiqq
