PUBLIC HEARING
Wednesday 12 July 2023

Agency: Australian Communications and Media Authority

Topic: List of international regulators consulted

Senator Claire Chandler asked:

In the 21 June report on measures, it was noted that ACMA consulted with international regulators. Could you tell me which regulators they were?

....I think on notice, if I could be provided with a complete list.

Answer:

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) engaged with the following international regulators in the development of its June 2021 report:

- The Office of Communications (United Kingdom)
- The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland, now Coimisiún na Meán
- The Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission
- Conseil supérieur de l'audiovisuel, now Autorité de régulation de la communication audiovisuelle et numérique (France)
- Die Medienanstalten (Germany)

We also engaged with the European Commission who oversee the EU Code on Disinformation, and the European Regulators Group for Audio-visual Media Services.
