

I would like to support the proposal that all Coal Seam Gas activities are monitored for their effects on water.

I believe base data is required before a mine is authorised, and ongoing comparative data is reported on to keep track of any effects of Fracking on water and air quality.

I believe CSG is a short sighted industry, that will pollute our environment for ever. I would like to see it completely banned

Kind regards
David Hauseman