

Answer to question:

PARLIAMENTARY JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON MIGRATION

MIGRATION, PATHWAY TO NATION BUILDING INQUIRY

QUESTION:

Dr WEBSTER: Have you got a percentage of the number of migrants who work in manufacturing across the board for your organisation?

Mr Angelico: No, I don't, actually.

Dr WEBSTER: It would be interesting. If you could take that on notice, it would be very helpful.

ANSWER:

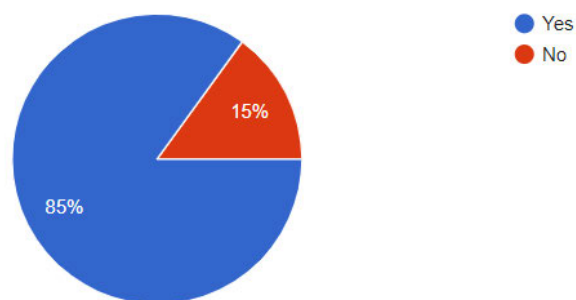

Summary:

20 SEMMA members responded to our survey, who currently employ 155 migrants across their organisations.

Do you currently employ any migrant workers?

Any other comments or things SEMMA should know? 9 responses

(this is 26 out of 45 employees)

I do employ Professional employees from other countries that have their residency status.

Migration is sought, please help industry to acquire migratory skills.

This is 1/3 of our work force.

Very slow process, during covid and after covid, we noticed an increase in order intake, which we were unable to adjust the business to accommodate successfully (couldn't get staff) Have since secured some great staff, but unfortunately some work has headed back offshore, So missed opportunity

We have Australian Electrical Apprentices unable to start schooling due to courses being full.

No, thanks.

Australian Born = 3

The number of migrant workers is all employees born overseas, some have been here quite a while. We recently sponsored a skilled migrant.
