

Question on notice no. 46

Portfolio question number: SE17/046

2017-18 Supplementary budget estimates

Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee, Immigration and Border Protection Portfolio

Senator Murray Watt: asked the Department of Immigration and Border Protection on 23 October 2017—

Senator WATT: You said, Ms Dacey, something like: from time to time, this kind of thing happens. Do you know how often over the last financial year someone holding a Maritime Crew visa has jumped ship?

Ms Dacey: I would have to say no. I know that there are obligations for the master of the ship to report deserters. That's under the Migration Act, but I don't have the detail about the numbers.

Senator WATT: Who do they report that to?

Ms Dacey: To the department.

Mr Outram: We could get that information for you.

Senator WATT: If you could take that on notice in Australian waters, generally; maybe if we could get it for the last three financial years?

Ms Dacey: Yes.

Senator WATT: And, if it's possible, can you break that down by port, or in some way narrow it down, so we can see whether there are any particular areas causing concern?

Ms Dacey: Hotspots; yes.

Senator WATT: I take it then that you don't have a number of confirmed and suspected cases of overseas sailors abandoning their ship in the hopes of slipping into Australia unnoticed?

Ms Dacey: I don't have that number, I'm sorry.

Senator WATT: Is that something you could take on notice?

Ms Dacey: I think we could agree to take it on notice. I'm just not sure

Mr Outram: Obviously, the masters are under obligation to report deserters. If it's reported, then we'll be able to provide that information.

Senator WATT: As well as providing it by port, could you provide the numbers of sailors; the dates they were reported to have abandoned their ships; the name of the ship; and the companies running those ships? Could you take that on notice, presuming you have that information.

Ms Golightly: To the extent we can get it, yes.

Answer —
