Re: Inquiry into the 2016-17 Defence Major Projects

Acknowledgement:

I wish to thank the Secretariat for allowing me to make this late submission due to personal and medical reasons.

Foreword:

The Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking Superannuation and Financial Services has paved the way by showing how even the most trusted institutions have been exposed as deficient in their probity to their customer base and how they were able originally, to 'delay, defer, deter' their regulatory authorities.

I will pose the question that this has been the same tactic employed by the Department of Defence on its regulatory authorities being the JCPAA, the Senate Estimates, the Parliament, and the Minister(s).

I will also pose the question that the Department of Defence's conduct when it comes to procurement and sustainment could and should be tested under the Department of Finance's Detriment caused by Defective Administration (CDDA Scheme).

I do not make this suggestion lightly, as I have had the experience of my fraud complaint in 1995 mishandled and whitewashed into history.

Background:

2014 – Senate Estimates – Finance Portfolio

F147 Senator Xenophon

Overview of public sector fraud and financial error

"Agencies reported 12,798 instances of non-compliance with the financial management framework in 2011-12 and 14,027 instances in 2012-13. This aggregate number includes serious issues such as fraud, financial errors and minor technical breaches. The nature of the information collected does not enable an overall figure for fraud to be determined."

Defence was a major contributor to the instances of non-compliance with the financial management framework.

2014 – Senate Estimates – Defence Portfolio

Budget Estimates Hearing – 2 & 3 June 2014

Question on Notice No. 63 - Defence Fraud/ANAO Audit Implementation

Senator Xenophon provided in writing:

In the February 2014 Additional Estimates, I asked about the 'Busuttil Report'. You advised that the 'Report of LCDR J. P. Busuttil RANR Concerning RANAD Newington' was reported on the 18th December 1996.

- (1) Did the contents of the report warrant reporting to the then Chief of Navy? If so, on what date was the Chief of Naval Staff/Chief of Navy informed?
- (2) Did the contents warrant advising the responsible Minister? If so, on what date was the responsible Minister advised?
- (3) Can you advise what inventory a Royal Australian Naval Arms Depot would be expected to carry and have on hand in the 1990's? Say at RANAD Newington?
- (4) Can you advise what value in dollar terms was written off from the RANAD Newington inventory in the years 1995-96, 1996-97, 1997-98 as a result of fraud, financial error and theft or just lost?

Response:

(1) Correspondence registers indicate that a copy of the report was received in the office of Chief of Navy on 21 December 2000.

(2) A search of the Ministerial Advice database indicates that no advice was provided to the Minister regarding the contents of the report.

(3) As an Armaments Depot in the 1990's, RANAD Newington could be expected to hold armaments from across the entire spectrum of Royal Australian Navy use at the time, including: missiles, torpedoes, large calibre weapons and small calibre weapons.

(4) The Busuttil Report identified the value of equipment which was missing from RANAD Newington. As the Busuttil Report was conducted under the Defence (Inquiry) Regulations 1985, release of any part of the Report will require specific authorisation from the Minister for Defence.

This answer to Senate Estimates should be balanced by the final report of the Australian Federal Police's final report into Operation Majorca, their investigation of Defence's Busuttil Report.

Sydney Morning Herald – 06 January 2018 – Michael Inman

Defence criminal investigations hamstrung by discipline laws: prosecutor

‘Brigadier Woodward warned that without reform, most fraud offences committed by defence force personnel would need to be investigated and prosecuted by civilian authorities.’

‘She said the laws often prevented the Australian Defence Force Investigative Service from collecting enough material to form a brief of evidence.’

2018

This brings me to last Tuesday, the 29th May 2018 @8:51pm.

Defence Internal Review released their response for review of FOI 314/17/18.

Too late for me to take advantage of Defence Estimates that day.

My application had been for the following:

2. The applicant’s request was for access to the following documents under the FOI Act:

“I request the following documents in relation to the Defence Major Projects Report (2016-17) released by the ANAO 23 January 2018.

Item 1 - A list of Audit Reports and Management Directed Tasks: FY 2016-17.

Item 2 – Documents that show as at 30 June 2017:

- 1 - How many service providers were employed by CASG?*
- 2 - Has CASG been able to remove the qualification required for their 2015-16 response?*
- 3 - How many APS personnel were employed by CASG?*
- 4 - How many uniformed Defence personnel were employed by CASG?*
- 5 - APS Salary Range 2017 per previous FOI 280/16/17*
- 6 - APS/SOS/SES headcount as at 30 June 2017*
- 7 - Army/Navy/RAAF headcount as at 30 June 2017*
- 8 - Uniformed personnel salary range as at 30 June 2017*

Item 3 - List of the Major Projects considered and reported by the DARC to the Defence Secretary and the CDF within the scope of Defence Major Projects 2016-17.

Excluding personal email addresses, signatures, PMKeyS numbers and mobile telephone numbers, contained in documents that fall within the scope of the FOI request. In addition, excluding duplicates of documents.”

Internal review decision

8. DPG advised that they are unable to provide the information in a different format as this is how the material is produced in reports. Taking into account the advice from DPG, I have decided to uphold the original decision to release in full Item 2, Serials 3, 4 and 8. I have not provided another copy of the documents as the applicant has already been provided this in the original decision.

From my previous submission to this Committee I was able to extrapolate the figure for the unfunded liability for CASG employment based on previously released data, based on 708 months (59 years) slippage.

See Supplementary submission 1.2

Given that the total schedule slippage has increased to 793 months (66 years) for the 2016-17 MPR, I am afraid that any submission I put forward without the Rank/APS numbers and median pay rate would be refuted by Defence CASG.

This result has to be now compared with what was provided,

Senate Estimates – Supplementary Budget Estimates

Defence FOI 208/16/17

From the above FOI 208/16/17 I had been able to ascertain that on the 30th June 2015 DMO employed 6150 service providers
30th June 2016 CASG employed 6260 service providers
Defence CASG gave a qualified answer to this figure.

From the above FOI 208/16/17 and Senate Estimates, the total APS headcount on the 1st October 2011 DMO employed 6134 APS personnel
30th June 2015 DMO employed 4542 APS personnel
30th June 2016 CASG employed 4028 APS personnel

From the above FOI 2018/16/17 and Senate Estimates, total uniformed count on the 1st October 2011 DMO employed 1316 uniformed personnel
30th June 2015 DMO employed 1534 uniformed personnel
30th June 2016 DMO employed 1546 uniformed personnel

Due to Defence's 'inability' to provide such usable information as that what was supplied to Senate Estimates and FOI 2018/16/17, and given the time constraints that apply to the Committee I am unable to further improve on my work supplied to your previous inquiry.

I thank you for your consideration.

Reasons for decision

Section 24A – Request may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received

This relates to documents matching Item 2 Serials 3, 4 and 8 which was released in full to the applicant.

7. In arriving at my decision, I had regard to:
- a. the scope of the applicant's request and subsequent internal review application;
 - b. the original decision;
 - c. the content of the documents subject to the internal review;
 - d. relevant provisions in the FOI Act;
 - e. the Guidelines published by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (the Guidelines); and

Taking into account the advice from DPG, I have decided to uphold the original decision to release in full Item 2, Serials 3, 4 and 8. I have not provided another copy of the documents as the applicant has already been provided this in the original decision.
