

Dear Sir/Madam,

I find it unacceptable for Australia to continue the live animal export trade on the knowledge that we can never ensure the wellbeing of our animals from the moment they leave our shores.

Time and time again, the live export industry has proven that it cannot be trusted to uphold animal welfare or be honest with the Australian public. It has clearly been proven to be incapable of raising animal welfare standards in their export markets to an acceptable level and that Australia can no longer put its faith in them to do so.

Yours Sincerely
Annette Angell.
