

From:
Ms Karilyn Varley

Naplan was developed as a diagnostic tool to track students stage level . It was not and should not be used to rank students and compare schools. Our school is a remote rural school and has been compared to an inner city Sydney school - how are they like?

Leagues tables are only harmful to schools and students by labelling them.