

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Senate
Community Affairs References Committee report:

Out-of-pocket costs in Australian healthcare.

SEPTEMBER 2024

Response to the recommendations

Australian Government response

The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since this report was tabled, in August 2014, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.