

---

Please do not pass this bill. This will only diminish the very small voice that animals have in our society. It is time we understand that animals are mammals just like us and feel pain and fear just as we do. They are helpless creatures caught in a big powerful industry. Please do not silence them. Have a heart.

Janice Martz