

As a manager in Break Thru DES the skills consultants have are invaluable for placing a client with a disability in employment. Clients depend on our expertise to seek and place them in sustainable employment based on individual client need. Potential employers find these skills useful in providing the most appropriate person for the job. Break Thru encourages client participation in choosing an employment or education pathway and has been successful with many clients who found it difficult to find work. Our service is based on the disability service standards and we were successful in our accreditation in 2010. This alone is testament to our professionalism in providing a quality disability employment service.
