

The educators at Drummoyne preschool support this bill for to assist services to attract and retain qualified professionals through wages increases. We would like to see that this is extended to ALL early childhood services and not just those funded by the federal government (ie long day care)

Helen Millar

Director