

Everyone has seen through the ploy of the cowards in the government to pretend they are tough on non-existent smugglers and only wants to beat up on refugees.

The laws proposed along with the laws today would have suited Hitler quite nicely but jailing anyone for giving people a ride away from the Taliban and other monsters is utterly depraved.

After all almost every refugee on the planet uses "smugglers" and as previously stated so long as they report to the authorities under Article 31 of the refugee convention it is legal no matter how they get there.

Shame on the cowards, shame on the lot of you.
